An In-Depth Research Into Anomalous Human Experiences Revealed That a Highly Advanced Technology Is Behind the Phenomenon of God, Aliens and Spirits

I hope you will take the time to read the content carefully since it's important that you all know what people have been experiencing since ancient times. These experiences/phenomena are what made people conclude the existence of these intelligences. However, this data tells us that highly advanced technology is behind these experiences and the technology is in the possession of a family/ a cabal that descends from a highly advanced ancient civilization. Today, they live among us in one of our countries. We could see that either they have destroyed our earlier civilization or systematically annihilated the civilization in order to keep control of the ultimate fate of the world in their hands. And they have not shared the technology with the rest of us ever since but they have managed to make some people believe that their aliens and are here to help us, which is not true. The Phenomenon of UFOs is a threat to the existence of our civilization, therefore, please DO NOT take this lightly. This highly advanced technology has been developed by our earlier civilization, so the technology belongs to us, but there's a secret ruling taking place on Earth by a family/ a cabal since ancient times. This also explains why people have been seeing UFOs in our skies quite often, although we never were able to contact these so-called aliens in a legitimate manner. Further, certain evidence associated with the Great Pyramid of Giza, indicates that the technology is in the possession of the pharaonic family, so they seem to be running this invisible empire on Earth (some people believe that there's a worldwide cabal that rules the world, however, there is no evidence for the existence of such a cabal.

The facts related to these experiences (the phenomenon of God, aliens, and spirits) are complicated, but if your background is in technology you could understand how to interpret the data that I have been sharing here. We could see that they have been using artificial intelligence, non-biological intelligences, augmented reality technologies (highly advanced neural stimulation technologies), teleportation technology, highly advanced scanning technologies, and various other technologies to convince us that these intelligences exist.

It should be apparent to you by reading the facts, that the 19th-century human experiences associated with the spirits/spiritualism phenomenon are identical to the experiences of people who lived 2000 years ago when Abrahamic religious books were being written. Although these experiences can help us to understand the truth, they are being ignored by our civilization without giving a second thought. And such experiences are filled in 19th-century books. Let me quote a few:

"Take up your Bible and you will find that there is not a single phenomenon which is recorded there which does not occur at seances today.":

"Almost all modern alleged psychical phenomena can be paralleled from the pages of Scripture. Says the Rev. H. R.Haweis: Take up your Bible and you will find that there is not a single phenomenon which is recorded there which does not occur at seances today. Whether it be lights, sounds, the shaking of the house, the coming through closed doors, the mighty rushing winds, levitation, automatic writing, the speaking in tongues, we are acquainted with all these phenomena; they occur every day in London as well as in the Acts of the Apostles. … It is incontestable that such things do occur, that in the main the phenomena of spiritualism are reliable, and happen over and over again, under test conditions, in the presence of witnesses; and that similar phenomena are recorded in the Bible, which is written for our learning. It is not an opinion, not a theory, but a fact. There is a chapter and verse for it, and this is what has rehabilitated the Bible. The clergy ought to be very grateful to Spiritualism for this, for they could not have done it themselves."?

"They will not believe in modern trance-mediumship; but they say they believe Ezekiel"

"They will not believe that voice-music has been heard continuously when no *living lips` were moved; but they say they believe that shepherds heard voices praising God in the highest. They will not believe in modern trance-mediumship; but they say they believe Ezekiel when he wrote, ` And the Spirit entered into me when he spake unto me, and set me on my feet, that I heard him that spake unto me."

People who lived in the 19th century were making these observations but these facts are being ignored by the majority. Although these facts are being ignored by the majority, in the 20th/21st-century, many researchers found indications to conclude that someone was using advanced technology to establish these religions on Earth. According to some researchers:

"Abundant evidence that there is an aerial phenomenon clearly connected to the God of the Bible, a serious question is posed."

"The religious community will condemn this writing as an attempt to perpetuate the Great Deception. But, since there is abundant evidence that there is an aerial phenomenon clearly connected to the God of the Bible, a serious question is posed… Who is doing the deceiving? We encourage those who are curious to check the sources that claim this is an evil plot. There is a Great Deception touted, but they do not in any way address the myriad of Biblical text that addresses this phenomenon. They claim that this is the Great deception, simply because they say it is. "

The existence and non-existence of phenomena/intelligences (A double-edged Sword that makes people believe that they're intelligent because of their conclusion and the rest are illogical/crazy or mentally ill):

We know that some people believe that aliens are visiting the Earth. Some people believe that aliens are not visiting us but still believe in the existence of an intelligence that they call God(Abrahamic religions). Some believe that an intelligence claims to be God is not communicating with us and the Bible/Quran was written by us and the minds of writers were not being influenced in any way. Then some people believe that intelligences claim to be souls of the dead are not communicating with psychics/mediums, and they believe that psychics/mediums are cold readers, because of claims made by people like James Randi (although his arguments were logical, he was dismissing observations made by psychic researchers).

However, we know that some Psychics report that they see TV screens in their minds. Here is how Laura Lynne Jackson describes her psychic/mediumship work.

"And then a screen appears in my mind, like a wide-screen TV, or ironically, like an old-school teacher's blackboard. My screen is divided into a left-hand side and a right-hand side. I get my psychic information on the left-hand side. The first time I read someone I'll see a core aura, which is a blueprint of that person's soul in this lifetime. I'll see a globe or sphere with certain colors, which is a whole language to me. It's my way of understanding the gifts this soul came with, and maybe some soul challenges he or she is confronting, and how they're doing with them.

"When I read mediumistically, I see information on my right-hand screen.

(Seeing TV screens in our minds is an augmented reality experience. We will be having these kinds of experiences in the future with the help of neural interfaces. One thing you would notice is that the psychic phenomenon shows a close connection with the UFO phenomenon but not only that when we closely analyze the data, we could see more than enough evidence to come to the conclusion that advanced technology is the cause)

Although people around the world strongly believe that their beliefs are right and claims made by others are false beyond any doubt, all these beliefs are nothing more than false beliefs. The majority of human beings still don't know that the existence of aliens, spirits, and God or the non-existence of aliens, spirits, and God are not conclusions that we can arrive at easily when we analyze the data associated with all these experiences that people were reporting since ancient times. Due to this very reason, the debate continues without a conclusion. Do you know that the phenomena people were reporting to conclude the existence of the intelligence claims to be God, and the phenomena people were reporting to conclude the existence of these intelligences claim to be Aliens/Spirits, were basically the same? Since your mind would want to believe that this claim cannot be true, let me share some of the actual reported human experiences related to these intelligences. You may pay attention (Highlighted in RED) to the phenomena that they were reporting when coming to the conclusion that these intelligences exist (Here I have taken the phenomenon of Materialization of matter, Teleportation, and Levitation only, which are parameters of advanced technology. And this is only a partial list):

Bread / Fish materialized (Abrahamic Religions – Intelligence claims to be God – Prior to the 2nd Century): (These items have come into existence out of thin air) "But he said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they said, We have no more but five loaves and two fishes; except we should go and buy meat for all this people. For they were about five thousand men. And he said to his disciples, Make them sit down by fifties in a company. And they did so and made them all sit down. Then he took the five loaves and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed them, and brake, and gave to the disciples to set before the multitude. And they did eat, and were all filled: and there was taken up of fragments that remained to them twelve baskets." Source: https://www.biblegateway.com/passage/?search=Luke+9-10&version=KJV	A cup was materialized (UFOs/Intelligences claim to be Aliens – 20th / 21st Century): (This item has come into existence out of thin air) According to his story, on May 24, 1952, he was driving home from work when he saw a saucer, sensing a force a few minutes before seeing the large red ovoid object. As he approached it, two small green objects came from it. A voice spoke some word assuring him of their benign intent, reminded him of his first having seen a saucer some six years previously, and told him that they had been watching him through the years. They also materialized a cup full of a liquid that Angelucci drank. This mystical-like experience ended with a message of the extraterrestrial's love of humanity and Angelucci's primacy as the first human they had contacted."? Materialization of Ghee (Abrahamic Religions- Islamic Literature – Intelligence Claims to be God/Allah – 7th Century): (These items have come into existence out of thin air) "What have you done O Anas? The Prophet entered Umm Sulaim's house and asked if there was ghee. She said:Yes, there is some. And she brought him a leather bag containing ghee. He then "In the name of Allah, O Allah glorify your blessings in it". The Prophet took a portion of the ghee and from it ate eighty-something men, and still some ghee was remaining." (Fodor, 1933/1966, p.155). Other objects that appeared during her career as a medium were: twenty prickly cactus plants; stinging nettles; eels and lobsters; butterflies; showers of feathers; and on one occasion three duck car casses ready for cooking (p.155). Apart from how this could be possible, one question is whether an apport such as the sunflower was materialized by spirits or invisibly teleported from someone's garden."? Teleportation (Experiences report in Abrahamic Religions – Intelligence claims to be God – Prior to the 2nd Century): (In layman terms: Human bodies were vanishing into thin air but then these bodies were coming into existence out of thin air in a different location in space) "Jewish legends relate that certain individuals mastered a technique, referred to as kefizat haderekh, path jumping. Although there are only a few accounts of how it was actually accomplished, there are innumerable anecdotes about rabbis and sages, who were able to mysteriously teleport themselves from	Teleportation (UFOs/Intelligences claim to be Aliens – 20th / 21st Century): (In layman terms: Human bodies were vanishing into thin air but then these bodies were coming into existence out of thin air in a different location in space) "Also, in view of the persistent element of psi in many UFO reports, one cannot help wondering why this aspect of the problem, with notable exceptions, has been completely omitted from the literature. Mrs Guppy was teleported into a seance: "Mrs Guppy's teleportation occurred in June 1871 at a seance in the London house of the medium Charles Williams (Fodor,1933/1966, p.392). The ten sitters did not include Mrs Guppy. Although it was light outside, the seance was held in darkness as a result of the doors and thick curtains being closed. When a sitter asked one of the spirit controls to apport them something, another jokingly said "I wish you would bring Mrs Guppy" (p.393). A while later there was a heavy bump on the table and a couple of screams. Others traveled in a split second from India to Arabia, taking one step from east to west, or had mountain peaks and river banks move towards each other allowing them to step across. Levitation of Human Bodies (Islamic Literature – Intelligence Claims to God/Allah): "Ibrahim b. Adham had a companion named Yahya, who worshiped God in a room that had neither a ladder nor a staircase. Whenever he needed to perform an ablution, he would go to the door of his room and utter: 'There's no power nor strength save in God!' He would then fly through the air, like a bird. After he performed his ablutions, he would [again] say: 'There's no power nor strength save in God' and would return to his room."?" Augmented/Virtual Reality Experiences (Bible): "In the third year of the reign of king Belshazzar, a vision appeared to me, even to me, Dainiel, after that which appeared to me at the first. 2 I saw the vision. Now it was so, that when I saw, I was in the citadel of Susa, which is in the province of Elam. I saw in the vision, and I was by the river Ulai. 3 Then I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and behold, there stood before the river a ram which had two horns." Source: https://www.biblegateway.com/passage/?search=Daniel%208&version=WEB	Augmented/Virtual Reality Experiences (Intelligences claim to be Aliens – 20th Century): "To complicate matters, many reports show that some interactions occur on a mental rather than a physical level. One type is an artificially induced virtual-reality scenario (VRS), an externally introduced event, that to the witness is practically indistinguishable from objective reality. The person may experience a situation with full sensory input and react with genuine physical and emotional responses, although in 'reality' the person may be lying immobile on an exam table, or sitting attached to some alien apparatus, or even asleep in bed with no outward sign of disturbance. " "While the VRS may have been a matter of theory in the past, a possible explanation for some of the more "unacceptable" abduction accounts, it has now been confirmed in a three-witness, conscious event. It came to light when I was investigating the abduction experiences of Ted Rice, a psychic of excellent reputation throughout the southern states. " "Ted witnessed a virtual-reality scenario when he was in Florida visiting a friend, Marie, along with another house guest, Amelia. The two women occupied twin beds in one room, and Ted slept down the hall in another. Not long after going to bed one night during his visit, he was awakened by Marie shouting for him to "come quickly!"?"? Source: Taken: Inside the Alien-Human Agenda by Dr. Karla Turner, Ph.D. – P8/9

Charles L. Tweedale Observed:

"Charles L. Tweedale, an English vicar, has been so impressed with the importance of supernormal revelation, and, through his work among all sorts and conditions of men, so impressed with the conviction that a more intense and vital belief in the reality of life after death is one of the urgent needs of the times, that he has published a book, giving, first of all, the scriptural proofs of resurrection, and adding to these, psychic experiences of his own and of many acquaintances.

A careful study of the Bible, he declares, reveals a record of almost continuous supernormal experiences, and these experiences he has taken pains to classify under their proper heads, as : clairvoyance, levitation, strange sounds and supernormal lights, appearances of spirit hands and the touch of discarnate beings, automatic writing, sounds of music and other manifestations. All are very similar to the psychical experiences of today. I would like to add, a little more in detail, a few of the New Testament examples that are very indicative of the good that came to the early disciples through spiritual guidance."

If people know that UFOs exist, and if people know that this highly advanced technology can be traced back to ancient times, the majority would not blindly believe in the existence of the intelligences claim to be God/Spirits. Neither aliens.

According to the survey carried out by FREE, we found out that human beings are inside these highly advanced flying machines:

“32% were allowed to roam the craft without supervision;"?

“29% were taken on a “tour"? of the craft;"?“

An interesting revelation from Table 6 is that the most common NHI seen aboard a UAP craft is actually a Human-looking NHI and not a Small Grey."?

“Some described the Human-looking Being as a normal human-looking person."?

Since the phenomenon of UFOs can be traced back to ancient times, this tells us that even in ancient times a group of human beings were in possession of a technology that none of us has access to. And they were roaming the Earth freely back then and they do the same even today. This tells us that a group of people that descends from a highly advanced ancient civilization are living among us in one of our countries. That’s not all, this tells us that after the invention of technologies such as teleportation, levitation, highly advanced neural interfaces, and inventing advanced technologies that can clone human minds using artificial intelligence, these people who lived in this highly advanced ancient civilization was taken control of the world—most likely engineering a global catastrophic event. Meaning, the technology is in the wrong hands. Yes, you heard it right although it’s hard for you to accept this claim, this event that looks impossible to our civilization was taken place sometime back the past. When we closely analyze data, we could see that they want us to believe that technology does not exist and they want us to believe that people who talk about UFOs are crazy. By ignoring this truth, we are letting people who descend from this type 1 or above civilization exploit us.

What you didn’t know is that this highly advanced technology interacts with human beings and this interaction is what makes people end up believing in the existence of spirits, aliens, and God. In other words, these people that descend from this highly advanced ancient civilization have managed to establish these false beliefs using the technologies that are in their possession. It’s not hard for you to come to this same conclusion if you spend time analyzing human experiences associated with spirits, aliens, and the experiences associated with the intelligence claims to be God.

Take mediumship phenomenon for example. To make mediums believe that spirits or souls of the dead exist, this highly advanced technology interact with people and in so many cases we could find that this interaction is taking place since their childhood. Which is something you never suspected and it's not something that you can easily accept as true either. However, if your child says that he/she could see dead people or spirits, what it means is that your child is also a victim of this highly advanced technology. This advanced technology is what gives psychic abilities and remote viewing abilities to human beings and they do this via a neural interface that connects human brains to highly advanced computers. Therefore, what I'm reporting here is an extremely disturbing crime. Since some of you might have never done any research into this mystery, let me take a couple of experiences, so you would know what people were experiencing around the world since ancient times:

"Like many psychics, she said her first psychic experiences occurred during childhood. Her psychic talent seemed to have emerged at the age of five or six":

Collins, Doris (ca. 1918–) Medium and psychic noted for her reported powers of clairvoyance, prediction, and psychic healing in Essex, England, the youngest of a family of nine children. Like many psychics, she said her first psychic experiences occurred during childhood. Her psychic talent seemed to have emerged at the age of five or six, when she stayed for a time with an aunt in Manor Park, East London. Collins played in the garden with a pretty little girl named Connie, but was later told by her aunt that Connie (her daughter) had been dead for several years. Collins had also seen her own dead sister, Emmie. At age 12, when her parents were out for the evening, Collins was in bed when she heard a voice warning her to get her sister Lily out of the downstairs room, where she was playing the piano. Collins called out to Lily, and as Lily left the room, part of the ceiling collapsed and a large slab landed on the piano stool. After her first marriage and the birth of a son, she developed a talent for spiritual healing and also for clairvoyance. In 1958 she became president of Woodford National Spiritualist Church, Essex; she later became vice-president of the Union of Spiritual Mediums (now renamed the Institute of Spiritualist Mediums).

"Ordinarily her work of composition was very slow, but her automatic writing speed was remarkable. On March 16, 1926, for example, she channeled 1,750 words in one hour and five minutes"

Cummins, Geraldine Dorothy (1890–1969) Medium, channel, and Spiritualist author. Cummins was born January 24, 1890 in Cork, Ireland, the daughter of Prof. Ashley Cummins. She had a modest education yet was well traveled. The development of her mediumship began in December 1923 in sittings with Miss E. B. Gibbes. Ordinarily her work of composition was very slow, but her automatic writing speed was remarkable. On March 16, 1926, for example, she channeled 1,750 words in one hour and five minutes. Her first books, beginning with The Spirits of Cleophas (1928), claimed to supplement the biblical books of the Acts of the Apostles and the epistles of St. Paul. It was a historic narrative of the early church and the work of the apostles from immediately after the death of Jesus to St. Paul's departure from Berea for Athens. In the production of the first two sections of the book"

Now notice that the Bible was reporting the same phenomenon, however, this time an intelligence claims to be God was controlling the hand of King David:

(King David's writing and drawing are reportedly being influenced by an intelligence):

"Then David gave to Solomon his son the pattern of the porch, and of the houses thereof, and of the treasuries thereof, and of the upper chambers thereof, and of the inner parlours thereof, and of the place of the mercy seat, And the pattern of all that he had by the spirit, of the courts of the house of the Lord, and of all the chambers round about, of the treasuries of the house of God, and of the treasuries of the dedicated things:

"All this, said David, the Lord made me understand in writing by his hand upon me, even all the works of this pattern."

In this case, you could see that Intelligences claim to be spirits/souls of the dead were controlling Luiz Gasparetto's hand to paint: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=BTYWVXyj8cY

Here is another case associated with intelligences claim to be spirits:

> "At the time, newly widowed Rosemary Brown was struggling in poverty to bring up her young son and daughter in South London, working in a school kitchen, and it is highly unlikely that she would have been aware of Clive-Ross's challenge in an obscure occult publication. Yet within a year, this natural psychic began writing well-developed music in the style of famous composers such as Liszt, Chopin, Bach, Beethoven and Rachmaninoff, resulting in the release of the record 'Rosemary Brown's Music' in 1970, with the medium playing the simpler pieces on one side, and renowned pianist Peter Katin playing the more complex compositions on the other. Her musical mediumship began, she explained, with the appearance of Liszt, who became her spiritual guide as she sat at her piano. 'I could stumble through an easy tune, she wrote later, 'but this was like automatic playing. I began to play virtuoso-style pieces, and it grew from there.' This automatic control of her hands was replaced with dictation by the dead composers who spoke English. Those speaking other languages — such as French, German or Polish — presented her with real problems. Yet one observer who saw her writing music while in contact with the spirit of a composer was amazed at the speed with which it was taken down. This devout Christian, who made little money from her gift, explained: 'It's very hard work, and I never know how it's going to sound until it is played.' Pianist Hephzibah Menuhin said: 'I look at these manuscripts with immense respect. Each piece is distinctly in the composer's style.' Composer Richard Rodney Bennett was among her many admirers: 'A lot of people can improvise, but you couldn't take music like this without years of training,' he declared. 'I couldn't have faked some of the Beethoven myself.' According to musicologist Sir Donald Tovey, writing from beyond the grave through Rosemary Brown's hand, the purpose of these musical compositions was not to offer possible listening pleasure, 'it is the implications relevant to this phenomenon which we hope will stimulate sensible and sensitive interest'. Rosemary Brown played the spirit-inspired compositions at London's Wigmore Hall and New York's City Hall, and two further recordings of these works were released before ill-health made it impossible for her to continue."

The miracles such as healing and materialization of food, etc., are all technology-based miracles. Therefore, I request you to research and analyze data before coming to a conclusion and spending your whole life believing what they have been telling us since this is a crime against humanity. Although the existence of this highly advanced technology and ufos is a top-secret on earth and they have been taking every measure to stop the general public from taking the phenomenon of ufos seriously, today, more and more are coming forward and revealing the truth behind ufos and they share their experiences too.

To explain why I made the above conclusion to another person is a difficult task for many reasons. However, when you think about phenomena such as levitation, materialization/dematerialization, teleportation, the phenomenon of synchronicities, automatic writing, etc., you would know that these experiences fit the profile of advanced technology. For example, take automatic writing, which is a phenomenon report by mediums quite often. This phenomenon fit the profile of advanced technology. The rest of the article explains how they have been controlling human hands and why this experience fit the profile of advanced technology and its connection to UFOs.

An intelligence was controlling human hands to transmit knowledge/information:

Some of you already know that automatic writing is commonly associated with intelligences claim to be spirits and aliens and even the literature on Abrahamic religions report this experience. So, what is automatic writing? It's actually an AI-based application. This application communicates with human brains in real-time to give this bizarre experience to human beings. When we carefully analyze data, we can see that this application is being deployed by the people who own UFOs to make us believe in the existence of spirits/aliens and various other intelligences that we have failed to identify their true identity yet. Although as of now I'm not able to prove this scientifically, I request you to take time to analyze data and make your own conclusion. All I can do is to present you with some evidence and make an attempt to explain to you the data that we see in the literature.

After scraping the web for days to find an experiment that would help me to put this into perspective, I came across an article published by Newscientist about a device developed by scientists at the University of Tokyo and Sony Computer Science Laboratories. Their device can control your fingers/hand by applying electrical stimulus to the muscles around the forearm. According to the article:

~Possessed Hand~

"WANT to learn a musical instrument, but can't find the time to practise? A device now under development can take control of your hand and teach you how to play a tune. No spirits of dead musicians are involved. "

> "PossessedHand, being developed jointly by the University of Tokyo, Japan, and Sony Computer Science Laboratories, also in Tokyo, electrically stimulates the muscles in the forearm that move your fingers. A belt worn around that part of the subject's arm contains 28 electrode pads, which flex the joints between the three bones of each finger and the two bones of the thumb, and provide two wrist movements. Users were able to sense the movement of their hands that this produced, even with their eyes closed. "The user's fingers are controlled without the user's mind,"? explains Emi Tamaki of the University of Tokyo, who led the research."

What this device has to do with automatic writing? (Technical side)

What this device does (referring to the device developed jointly by the University of Tokyo, Japan, and Sony Computer Science Laboratories) is that the components of the device hack the signal pathways between your motor neural circuits (brain) and the fingers/hands. Instead of this type of hacking, the literature on UFOs and spirits tells us that this highly advanced technology directly hacks the neural circuits by installing a highly advanced neural interface in human brains.

(Regarding the neural interface: This technology exhibits a capability to materialize/dematerialize matter using a remote mechanism. The unusual healing experiences that people were reporting are because of this unique capability of the technology. On the other hand, because of this capability, most likely sometime after your birth, people who own UFOs, install a neural interface—an automatic process—in your brain so they could use AI to monitor you and to interact with your brain if needed. Your entire life activities (neural activities) will be captured by the AI and they would know about you better than you know about yourself. This interface is what connects people to the paranormal/psychic world. Note that paranormal experiences include physical and mental experiences. Here I'm referring to mental experiences only. AI uses your neural data for other physical interactions. For instance, AI can use neural data to identify your exact location and move an object that is in front of you while making you see a ghost or some other form of visual hallucination).

This can be known by carefully analyzing the data related to the phenomenon of UFOs and spirits, and also understanding the bigger picture of what these experiences are telling us (This data even tell us the mysteries surrounding covid-19, since this virus was predicted by Sylvia Browne, who was a medium that communicated with intelligences claim to be spirits. These so-called spirits tell us a mix of truth and lies. Because of their truthful statements people believe they exist in the way they claim. But because of their false claims, people reject these experiences entirely).

What can we do by installing a neural interface in human brains? What does this advanced technology—the technology behind the phenomenon of UFOs—do to deceive us? Let me give a summary of my investigation, before taking actual data to discuss these human experiences further:

Since human brains are connected to this highly advanced system, the AI/ASI is able to monitor you and even give you experiences such as automatic writing, automatic speaking/speaking in tongues (the secret behind this gift is advanced technology), apparitional experiences, visions, etc., and even the spirit and demonic possessions (Instead of just the hand, the technology behind UFOs can possess/control the entire body by directly hacking the brain), are caused by the AI/ASI. Because of this connection, people can channel spirits and aliens anytime. In other words, when you channel spirits or aliens, you letting artificial superintelligence control your whole body by controlling your brain's neural circuits to reflect a secondary personality/secondary intelligence.

Channeling of Aliens: For instance, here Darryl Anka believes that he is channeling an extraterrestrial intelligence claims to be Bashar: https://www.youtube.com/@BasharChanneledbyDarrylAnka

What happens here is that the ASI control neural circuits of Darryl Anka's brain to exhibit this secondary personality known as Bashar (this is an AI-based [artificial] personality). In other words, this body possession is caused by artificial superintelligence. These experiences tell us that someone out there is using highly advanced technology to convince us of the existence of aliens. On the other hand, similar technology-based experiences are also given to people to make them believe in the existence of spirits or souls of the dead as well.

For instance, here JZ Knight is channeling an intelligence that claims to be a Lemurian warrior (a spirit): [YouTube video does not exist anymore]

However, what happens here is that the ASI controls the neural circuits of JZ Knight's brain to reflect a secondary personality known as Ramtha. Is it that JZ Knight faking? If artificial intelligence (or ASI) controls the neural activities of JZ Knight's brain in real-time, then we could expect to see changes in her brain. In fact, the scientists who investigated this phenomenon find that the experience is genuine and that there are indeed changes in her brain. According to them:

"A similar study has also been carried out on JZ Knight using eight simultaneous psychophysiological indicators. All of the indicators show significant changes between JZ's ordinary performance versus that when she is channeling. It would be impossible to fraudulently pass all eight indicators, conclude the scientists (Wickramsekera et al. 1997)."?

In short, what this means is that to establish modern spiritualism/spiritism on Earth:

I). The artificial superintelligence (ASI) was controlling hands to write automatically. (Neural monitoring data are being used to convince the given information about deceased personalities are true) ii). The ASI was controlling hands to draw/paint automatically. (ASI was replicating the drawing and painting styles of deceased people by controlling hands. To facilitate this deception, the ASI uses neural data) iii). The ASI was controlling speech organs to produce speech in languages unknown to the medium.
iv). The ASI was controlling neural circuits of brains to reflect a secondary personality.
v). The ASI was materializing and/or teleporting non-biological intelligences that have mental clones (mental clones can replicate the behavior, knowledge about historical events and memories, etc. of deceased people) and body clones of deceased people.
vi). The ASI was teleporting human beings and was materializing/dematerializing matter.
vii). The ASI was controlling neural correlates associate with visual perceptions (here the ASI was giving highly advanced form of augmented reality experiences to sitters and mediums)

(On the other hand, if you ask the question: What technologies need to replicate the phenomenon of spirits? You will find that we need access to the above technologies and applications)

Apart from that, all the other reported unusual experiences are also caused by ASI. In other words, today we see modern spiritualism on Earth because of the scientific miracles that were shown to people who lived in the 19th century. Since their experiences were true and baffling, educated people who lived in this period were saying:

Mr CAMILLE FLAMMARION:

"CAMILLE FLAMMARION, well-known in scientific circles as an astronomer and member of the Academie Francaise, thus testifies to the truth of Spiritualism : "I do not hesitate to affirm my conviction, based on personal examination of the subject, that any scientific man who declares the phenomena denominated 'magnetic,' 'somnambulic 'mediumic/and others not yet explained by science, to be 'impossible/ is one who speaks without knowing what he is talking about ; and also any man accustomed, by his professional avocations, to scientific observation-provided that his mind be not biased by pre-conceived opinions,-may acquire a radical and absolute certainty of the reality of the facts alluded to." He further remarks : "Although Spiritualism is not a religion but a science, yet the day may come when religion and science will be reunited in one single synthesis."

PROFESSOR CHALLIS, F. R. S States:

"PROFESSOR CHALLIS, F. R. S., the late Plumerian Professor of Astronomy at Cambridge, stated his opinion in a letter to the "Clerical Journal," of June, 1862, as follows: 'I have been unable to resist the large amount of testimony to such facts, which has come from many independent sources, and from a vast number of witnesses. … In short, the testimony has been so abundant and consentaneous, that either the facts must be admitted to be such as are reported, or the possibility of certifying facts by human testimony must be given up."

What is Automatic writing? (From the experiencer's perspective)

Earlier, I explained what automatic writing is from a technical perspective to give you a basic idea of what automatic writing is. Let me explain this from the experiencer's perspective to explain this mysterious phenomenon further. We know that when someone writing an article about a complex topic, the writer moves his/her pen by carefully thinking to produce the intended written text. But in automatic writing, the writer's hand will move automatically, independent to his/her train of thoughts. So for instance, if you are the automatic writer, you can have a conversation with another person or think about the events which transpired yesterday while your hand is doing the writing.

For instance, Delaney E. Lauderback states:

"Paper and pencil would be placed on or under tables in séances and messages would be written by Spirit. Spirits working through mediums could use the medium to write on one subject with the left hand, simultaneously on another subject with the right hand while the medium carried on a conversation on a third topic. The writing was sometimes in foreign languages the medium could not possibly have known."?

"There are records of writing so small it had to be highly magnified to read. Kate Fox, as mentioned above, wrote with each hand on separate topics at "incredible speed" and could simultaneously call the alphabet for rapped messages. The writing was a mirror image. It had to be held to a mirror to be read."?

Source: Spiritualism, History, And The Great Awakenings by Delaney E. Lauderback

Time and time again people were reporting this fact about automatic writing and sometimes they even claim that they can actually feel as if someone else or an external intelligence controlling their hands. Further, some people even claim that they communicate with intelligences claim to be spirits/souls of the dead while doing automatic writing and in their normal life. However, as stated earlier, human experiences related to automatic writing tell us that the cause behind automatic writing is artificial superintelligence (a highly advanced artificial intelligence-based application).

To help you see this perspective, let me first show you that the automatic writing phenomenon that is associated with the intelligences claim to be spirits and aliens is the same. You may pay attention to unique parameters such as rapid writing, writing without premeditation, and written messages that cannot attribute to one's own thoughts, etc.

(Pay attention to the highlighted ones in RED. Notice that these parameters are the same. Meaning, what we are seeing is the same phenomenon, although intelligences identify themselves as aliens and spirits. We could expect to see this if someone uses artificial intelligence to control human hands.)

Automatic Writing (Billy Meier's – UFO/ET Contactee)	Automatic Writing (Carlos Mirabelli – Messages from Spirits)
According to Wendell Steven: "When he got home from that meeting, he sat down in his little bedroom and started to write the message and then it came through automatic. He was trying to remember what they said when it came through automatically in longhand and he wrote it rapidly faster than he can write normally under some kind of control and he wrote 15 or 20 pages full. And then stopped and he had the first message. And when he looked at it he realized he has gotten the entire communication word by word. So the next time he saw her she came back.	1). "Carlos would write many pages at a truly remarkable speed in the language of the communicator. Additionally, he also drew portraits of people who had died, 'which were identified by surviving relatives"? [1] 2). The phenomena observed during the Academy's investigation divide into three categories: [2] 1. Automatic writing in 28 different languages

He asked her how they did that. And she said that it's a mechanical device. We have a device that records not only the conversation but the thought process as well."? – These same parameters can be seen when spirits use automatic writing as a communication modality. He had to sit and wait for the transmissions to start vibrating in his mind, and then the information came through rapidly and clearly and without any error, erasures or strike overs."? Spoken mediumship in 26 languages, including seven dialects. – Artificial intelligence (AI) will have to transmit information to brains and control neural circuits associated with speech production. Which means, AI can produce speech from any language. 3. Physical phenomena including 'levitation and invisible transportation of objects: the dematerialization of organic and inorganic bodies: luminous appearances and a variety of rapping and other sounds: touches: digital and other impressions upon soft substances, and finally the materialization of complete human beings with perfect anatomical features'. "Mirabelli's linguistic productions, on 'a wide range of subjects from medicine, law, sociology, to astronomy, musical science and literature',11 are remarkable because, as Playfair noted, 'All witnesses I have interviewed agree without hesitation that Mirabelli could not even speak either of his own languages (Italian and Portuguese) correctly."? Automatic Writing (Robert Short – Messages from ET's) "Surprisingly during these automatic writing sessions, my arm never grew tired"? "It was not long after this incident of UFOs streaking across the sky that someone made the fateful suggestion that I try automatic writing. Hesitant at first, I finally took their suggestion, setting up a large artist's pad and holding my hand over it. In the beginning, all I got were swirls. But then something incredible happened. The writing came so fast that I would feed the paper in with my left hand and immediately feed it out again like an assembly line. An extraterrestrial calling himself Jon-al seemed to he my main contact, although another entity would sporadically come through with information. Being a discerning person, I studied the writings carefully. "they were intelligent; the messages portraying concepts of higher learning and spiritual truths. Surprisingly during these automatic writing sessions, my arm never grew tired, although I sometimes held it over the paper for an hour."? Brazilian born Chico Xavier wrote more than 450+ books and a couple of thousand letters by a process known as Psychography or commonly known as automatic writing, which is an alleged psychic ability allowing people to write words without conscious thinking. He has written books covering a wide range of genres and styles: novels, poetry, children's books, short stories, letters, and essays on scientific and philosophical topics. [1]"? "Much of his writing was done at public sessions, several of which were filmed showing him at work, his left hand covering his eyes and his right hand filling sheet after sheet of paper at extraordinary speed."? [2] "Also unexplained was the steady stream of personal messages given to those attending his public meetings, many of whom came in the hope of receiving news from their deceased loved ones. Again and again he would give precise details of their death, usually a premature one, sometimes not only giving the names of members of their family but signing off with nicknames – one young man named Milton ended his message as he used to do when alive with `1000 Ton', the Portuguese word for one thousand being mil. A team of Spiritists from São Paulo managed to track between automatic writing and UFOs) "A very unusual case of extraterrestrial contact occurred to a waitress named Maryann X, of Carpinteria, California. One evening in 1992, following a series of UFO sightings, Maryann was in her home watching TV when she became aware of a presence. Although she couldn't see anything, in her mind's eye she sensed a strange being. The figure was thin, bald, with a large head, gray skin and dark almond-shaped eyes. In other words, the typical gray-type alien."? "At that point, Maryann began to experience the phenomenon of automatic writing. Automatic Writing (Marian Keech – Messages from ET's) "Marian Keech (pseudonym) was the founder of a group in Lake City, Utah, during tile 1950s. Apparently, she was quite a psychic lady and believed her late father had resumed contact with her from beyond the grave. She used to sit regularly and await automatic writing from him, but eventually other entities began introducing themselves. These included beings from other planets, a group called the Guardians, but primarily a being who called himself Sananda, from	Automatic Writing (Mr. Wilkinson- Messages from Spirits) " I had for many weeks," says Mr. Wilkinson, intervals, taken pencil in hand, and held it for several minutes at a time, with no result excepting the faintest conviction that it was of no use to try again, for it was impossible for my hand to move ; and my conviction was borne out by repeated failures. It never moved a jot, and, though I gave not up the trial, I held the pencil without hope. At last, at my house, in the presence of several gentlemen, again held it, and after waiting less the planet Clarion. He claimed to have been Jesus in a former lifetime."? – Here the deception is apparent.

“Mrs. Keech would sit at a desk, a pencil in her hand. Suddenly, the pencil would move. Jerking spasmodically across the page, it would fill the paper with words. When the “possession” was over and her hand at last came to rest, Mrs. Keech would lift her pad and read. The words her fingers had formed “unknowingly” were messages from a distant world."?

Automatic Writing (Shah – Messages from ET’s)

“This “written channelling”, as she described it, is known as automatic writing where subjects’ hands move as if controlled by someone else, and words are written which were not recognized by the subjects as being in their conscious minds. Shah’s Master Teacher said he was to teach her for two years, in preparation for the Masters speaking to her. She was, he said, to let trust and guidance grow between them."? – P181

“Two years later the second phase of Shah’s channelling career began. She attended a workshop led by Eric Cline, whom she described as part of the “Ascension Movement”. This Movement is concerned with channelling messages from the Ascended Masters in order to help fulfil their plans on Earth."?

“There, the Master Teacher requested to channel than five minutes, it began to move, at first slowly, but presently with increased speed, till in less than a quarter-of-an-hour it moved with such velocity as I had never seen in a hand and arm before or since. It literally ran away in spiral forms ; and I can compare it to nothing else than the fly-wheel of an engine when it was run away.’ This lasted until a gentleman present touched my arm, when suddenly it fell like an infant’s as it goes to sleep, and the pencil dropped out of my hand. I had, however, acquired the power. The consequences of the violent motion of the muscles of the arm were so apparent, that I could not for several days lift it without pain ” (p. 20).

Automatic Writing (Andrea Courey – Messages from Spirits)

“Automatic handwriting is a form of channeling where you just let spirit take over and start writing whatever comes through your hand. There is no thought involved, no processing, no correcting or editing. It is pure linking with the divine and it feels absolutely delightful. Between 2010 and 2012, I had over a dozen automatic writing experiences. The first one was with Abraham Lincoln. It took just two sittings as the words flowed out automatically without any thought, reflection or awareness on my part. I clearly remember heading out to work that first morning when I heard a voice in my head ask me to turn verbally through her for the first time. This lasted ten minutes. He then told her that Sananda, an Ascended Master, wanted to do the same"?

Now, finally, I am posting it on this site and hope that it and the other messages will be widely read and enjoyed."? "In 2012, the writings just stopped. For four years, I received nothing until my daughter Chloe spoke up loud and clear from across the veil and together we wrote Conversations with Chloe – A Mother and Daughter Dialogue Across the Veil. Automatic Writing (Messages from Spirits)

Karen Stollznow discusses (in the wider context of 'New Age' thought) several well-known older cases of automatic writing in 'the West', including a case featuring the highly skeptical Harry Houdini (involving a private sitting with automatic writer Lady Doyle, mother of Arthur Conan Doyle) and the Borley Rectory haunting case in the UK (where the automatic writing supposedly occurred without a living medium, being generated by ghosts), as well as recent cases in Australia involving ‘Lisa’, who reports that she receives messages from spirits as ‘thoughts’ in her head; the spirits then guide her handwriting. Source: https://skepticalhumanities.com/2012/10/22/channelled-languages-and-similar-phenomena-3-non-historical-fringe-linguistics-12/

Automatic Writing (Mrs. Curran – Messages from Spirits) “housewife from St. Louis, Missouri, began experimenting with a Ouija board in 1913. She started to receive communications from a deceased English girl, Patience Worth who had supposedly lived in the seventeenth century. Patience produced, sometimes at extraordinary speed, a series of historical novels, very varied in style and setting, and considerable quantities of poetry."? [1] “Patience’s historical output dealt for the most part with life in the era in which she professed to have lived. All historian who studied her work agreed that it was written in the authentic Anglo-Saxon- Norman idiom of that era, accurate knowledge of which would normally be unknown to all but graduate students and scholars of Elizabethan English. She possessed a thorough knowledge of the flora and fauna, the modes and customs of the era, and never once did she betray herself by employing a reference to modern vehicles machines, utensils or conveniences, or even by use of contemporary phrases."? [2]	Automatic Writing (Messages from Spirits) “it may come upside down if the horizontal direction is changed to face a particular sitter, the words may be written in a reverse order, as “latipsoh” for hospital, and it may be executed at tremendous speed. The automatic communications alleged to originate from Philip the Evangelist, from Cleophas, and F. W. H. Myers, obtained by Miss Geraldine Cummins, were sometimes delivered at the extraordinary speed of 2,000 words per hour."? “One feature of the case deserving special mention is Patience’s ability to compose both poetry and fiction without need of revision. I don’t think there are even five instances in the entire history of the case in which Patience demonstrated any compositional hesitancy or backtracked to make corrections. (The most conspicuous instance of literary uncertainty was her apparent struggle to compose a brief and apparently simple poem: the Child’s Prayer, reproduced above.) This facility may be most remarkable in connection with Patience’s longest works, The Sorry Tale and Hope Trueblood, novels of more than 630 and 360 pages (respectively). One needn’t be a veteran of the publishing business to recognize how astonishing it is to produce finished works of such length without amendment or alteration. Nevertheless, it’s worth noting that after forty years in publishing, William Targ, former editor in chief of G.P. Putnam & Sons, remarked, “There’s no such thing as a publishable first draft."? [3] – Writing without revision is also a parameter that we can expect in automatic writing. Curran’s own mind cannot be the intelligence behind the writing. When artificial superintelligence(ASI) controls neural circuits, we could write about complex subjects without thinking; rapidly, and without doing any revision at all. “It seems utterly unplausible to suppose that the knowledge shown in these automatic productions was ever acquired by the normal consciousness of Mrs. Curran."? But may appear in mirror script or could be written from top to bottom or even diagonally. The reason for this may become clear during the reading."? “It is possible that the person writing may not be fully conversant with what they are being asked to write, for example, Bible passages may be quoted, or a foreign language used, or some text written in verse. To achieve this, the AI could decode thoughts and transmit this information to another person using automatic writing as a communication modality. "William T. Stead, who developed the power of automatic writing, often received such curious messages from many of his friends for a period of 15 years. He said that, as a rule, these messages were astonishingly correct and the fact of such communication with the living was as well established for him as the existence of wireless telegraphy. He made it a subject of experimental investigation and found that sometimes the messages so transmitted even came against the direct intention of the agent. He called the phenomenon "automatic telepathy" and asserted that he knew at least ten other automatic writers who received similar messages."? – This means, thoughts of people are being decoded, and then that information has been transmitted to Stead using Automatic Writing communication modality. As you can see, the above data shows that whatever the cause behind the automatic writing experiences associated with intelligences claim to be spirits and aliens is the same. Now the question is whether there's an AI-based application or artificial superintelligence is behind this experience? How can we figure this out? What kind of experiences you would expect to see in the world to prove to someone that an AI-based application or artificial superintelligence is behind automatic writing experiences?

To explain this part of the mystery, let me ask you this question as well. How people will look at automatic writing in another 400 to 500 years?

(According to Dr. Michio Kaku, it will take a couple of centuries from here to teleport human beings if possible. Since human teleportation is being reported by people, to explain the data I took this future period)

Earlier, I gave an insight into this phenomenon from a technical perspective and experiencer's perspective, now let me explain to you how future humans (let's say by 2400/2500) would look at these experiences and explain this future application in detail.

Future humans in this period will use advanced neural interfaces (or brain-computer interfaces) to connect their brains to computers/to artificial superintelligence (we will connect our brains to computers much sooner than this). To communicate with the ASI, their brains will communicate with a satellite constellation (think about an advanced form of Starlink) wirelessly (think about an advanced form of neuralink/neural lace). This neural interface would not be visible to the outside because of the technologies they use (they could even use femto/atto technologies provided they find usable phenomena in these scales).

Regardless of the technology behind the neural interface, the majority of future humans must have this interface to function. Technologies deprecate; so even if future humans in this period like it or not, most people will have to adapt to the changes. For neural interfaces, these future humans will develop various applications. So, in this era of neural interfaces, what is automatic writing for these future humans? From an application perspective, it is a basic application of a neural interface. They will not conclude the existence of aliens, spirits, or God just by having an automatic writing experience, instead, they would suspect a possible hacking based on the experience that they face. Here are the potentials of this future application.

1). Write in any language even though we have no knowledge of the language: Since ASI can control the hand to do the writing, the below experience can be replicated (also to make sense of this think about the future possibilities of the possessed hand experiment).

2). Write about any subject professionally even though we have no knowledge of the subject: Since ASI is the author, the below experiences can be replicated.

i). Carlos Mirabelli: "Mirabelli's linguistic productions, on 'a wide range of subjects from medicine, law, sociology, to astronomy, musical science and literature',11 are remarkable because, as Playfair noted, 'All witnesses I have interviewed agree without hesitation that Mirabelli could not even speak either of his own languages (Italian and Portuguese) correctly."?

ii). Chico Xavier: "He has written books covering a wide range of genres and styles: novels, poetry, children's books, short stories, letters, and essays on scientific and philosophical topics. [1]"?

3). Rapid writing: ASI can use our hands to write pretty fast by controlling neural correlates associate with writing. And after all, it is automatic writing.

i). Carlos Mirabelli: "Carlos would write many pages at a truly remarkable speed in the language of the communicator."
Source: http://psychictruth.info/Medium_Carmine_Carlos_Mirabelli.htm

ii). According to Wendell Stevens: "When he got home from that meeting, he sat down in his little bedroom and started to write the message and then it came through automatic. He was trying to remember what they said when it came through automatically in longhand and he wrote it rapidly faster than he can write normally under some kind of control and he wrote 15 or 20 pages full. And then stopped and he had the first message. And when he looked at it he realized he has gotten the entire communication word by word."

4). While the hand is doing the writing, we can engage in a conversation: Since ASI is the author, we could replicate the below experience.

"Spirits working through mediums could use the medium to write on one subject with the left hand, simultaneously on another subject with the right hand while the medium carried on a conversation on a third topic."

5). We can produce writings from different handwriting styles. And even duplicate the handwriting styles of others: Since ASI is the author we could replicate the below experience.

i). "The best cases are those in which the method of the manifestation was of a convincing character. Blanche Abercromby's is the strongest of all : she gave the news of her death before it could have been normally known, and she imitated the handwriting, not the signature alone, of her earth life, a feat that no other spirit achieved so satisfactorily." – Once the monitoring ASI (here I'm referring to the technology behind the UFO phenomenon and the ASI that is being deployed by them) detects the death of a person, the ASI can use hands of the medium/or any person to write a message by imitating handwriting style of the deceased individual.

ii). "and that, in many cases, this handwriting has been recognised as that of a dead relative or friend."

iii). "Piper's case, the spirit claims to take entire control of the medium's body (in other words, to be an example of possession, like the Watseka Wonder already noticed). The medium then speaks, not in her own voice, but in the voice so far as she can do so of the alleged spirit; her handwriting is not her own, but changes with that of each spirit who uses her body; her gestures are not her normal ones, but may be characteristic of the discarnate spirit who claims to be present. In other words, the medium speaks and acts in every way as the spirit who claims to be in control of her body would do." – When controlling neural correlates associate with this experience, ASI can use a cloned personality to exhibit personality characteristics of a deceased person. See channeling experiences that I have mentioned above to make sense of this claim.

iv). "In what was given under these circumstances she wrote for us the replies in conversations with what purported to be the spirits of three deceased relatives, the wife of my brother, my brother Alfred, and cousin Harvey, who had for several years been my most intimate and beloved friend; and the handwriting of the three series of communication was a better imitation of their writing than I, knowing it, could have produced. That of my sister-in-law I was not so familiar with, though my brother recognized it as that of his wife, but that of our brother was a perfect reproduction down to the smallest accidents, and that which was given as the responses of my cousin equally so, and executed with a rapidity of which I was incapable–a large scrawling hand, that of our brother being of a character entirely opposed, slowly and laboriously formed, with occasional omissions of the last line of a final n, quite common in his writing."

6). We can imitate the writing styles of authors: Since ASI can imitate the writing styles of others, we could replicate the below experience.

"In 2014, a study was published in a peer reviewed medical journal by a group of professors from the University of Sao Paulo, in which Chico Xavier's writings were compared to the deceased author. The research consisted of analyzing 13 letters known to be from an author by the name of J .P. in both his physical incarnation and Xavier's psychographs. From these documents, the researchers identified 99 items that could be tested for comparison between J.P.'s documents, both when he was living and dead. They also contacted the deceased entities former friends and relatives for validation. Their findings were astonishing. The researchers concluded that 98 percent of the compared items were accurate (rated a clear and precise fit)."

7). We can write backward or even do mirror writing easily: Since ASI controls the hand, we can replicate the below experience.

"Then, again, when the guides are writing in reply to a private question put by some friend of mine they write wrong side up, so that the friend sitting opposite to me can read the writing and I cannot. They seem to write this way just as easily as the other. Sometimes there is mirror-writing. Some- times each word in a sentence is written backwards, and sometimes the whole sentence is written backwards, beginning with the last letter of the last word. In a few cases only have we thought, that the handwriting resembled what the supposed spirit wrote in life. "

8). We can use both hands to write even if we don't have such an ability. Further, ASI can control the left hand to write a medicine-related topic in Spanish and use the right hand to write a poem in English: Here the ASI can use different parameters to control left and right motor neural circuits simultaneously.

"I have said that some mediums write with both hands at once, at the same time carrying on a conversation with a third person (see Aksakoff). Mansfield wrote simultaneously with both hands in two different languages, while speaking of other subjects with persons present; among other things he announced the death of Jacobs, which was taking place at that moment (Moses). Moses also once noted three instruments of sound operating at once in a seance, — trumpet, table, and drum."

"How can we explain the fact that the psychic force of a medium can not only be transformed into motor and sensory force, but simultaneously acts in three different directions and with three different purposes? And if it is impossible for a sane man, with senses undimmed, to turn his attention so fixedly in three different directions at once as to obtain objective phenomena, how is this possible for a medium in a state of evident insensibility?"

"Furthermore, there are things that take place against the will of the medium, and even of the so-called operating spirit."
Source: After Death–what? by Cesare Lombroso – (p. 160)

9). We can write about any subject continuously without premeditation: Since ASI will be the author, the following experiences can be replicated.

"Madame Ouyon states in her autobiography, that when she was composing her works she would experience a sudden and irresistible inclination to take up her pen ; though feeling wholly incapable of literary composition, and not even knowing the subject on which she would be impelled to write. If she resisted this impulse it was at the cost of the most intense discomfort. She would then begin to write with extraordinary swiftness; words, elaborate arguments, and appropriate quotations coming to her without reflection, and so quickly that one of her longest books was written in one and a half days."

" Similar statements are made of St. Teresa, who declared that in writing her books she was powerless to set down anything but that which her Master put into her mind. So Blake said of * Milton ' and ' Jerusalem,' ' I have written the poems from im* mediate dictation, twelve or sometimes twenty or thirty lines at a time, without premeditation and even against my will. The time it has taken in writing was thus rendered non-existent, and an inmiense poem exists which seems to be the labor of a long life, all produced without labor or study.'"
Source: The Cosmic Relations and Immortality by Henry Holt – (p. 340)

10). Our hands can reply to mental questions: By decoding the thoughts of people ASI can reply to mental questions.

"The hand wrote legibly and neatly in reply to mental, i.e., unspoken questions, she having no control of the muscles so long as the ' influence ' . . . chose to use it. She knew what was written only when the writing was finished and she read it, as we did; and the writing was . . . quite as regular and well formed when her eyes were bandaged. … As a further test of the involuntary character of this we… tried her with… my brother talking with her from one side of the table, while she was writing in reply to my mental questions on the other…..

"…. Under these circumstances she wrote for us the replies in conversations with what purported to be the spirits of three deceased relatives … and the handwriting of the… series of communications was a better imitation of their writing than I, knowing it, could have produced. That of my sister- in-law… my brother recognized … as that of his wife, but that of our brother was a perfect reproduction down to the smallest accidents, and that which was given as the responses of my cousin equally so, and executed with a rapidity of which I was incapable — a large scrawling hand, that of our brother being of a character entirely opposed, slowly and laboriously formed, with occasional omissions of the last line of a final n quite common in his writing."

As you can see, if an AI-based application or artificial intelligence is behind the phenomenon of automatic writing, then this data can be explained. In other words, what this means is that the data associated with automatic writing experiences is giving us evidence in support of the conclusion that an AI-based application is behind the phenomenon; which is a crucial piece of evidence to understand this mystery. If an AI-based application or artificial intelligence is behind the automatic writing phenomenon, what about spirits? Does that mean artificial intelligence (advanced technology) is behind the phenomenon of spirits as well? If artificial intelligence is behind the phenomenon of spirits (advanced technology), then we could expect to see most of the phenomena associated with spirits showing a connection to advanced technology; and in this case, the phenomenon of UFOs. Here is a summary of some of the reported phenomena associated with spirits and the UFO/ET phenomenon.

(except few, most of the researchers ignore these experiences since it's odd to receive phone calls from aliens) * Note that are other reported phenomena in the literature on UFOs, however, I have not mentioned those phenomena here.

We can trace these experiences to ancient times. What you are seeing below is a summary of reported experiences associated with the intelligence claims to be God. We could see that these experiences were making people believe in the existence of God. However, notice that people who were living in the 7th century and earlier were observing the same phenomena but this time, the intelligence was identifying itself as God. There's only a slight variation to the interaction parameters.

As you can see, the majority of the phenomena associated with the phenomenon of spirits show a connection to the UFO phenomenon. This correlation should also confuse you when you try to identify the true identity of the intelligence behind the UFO phenomenon and spirits. Is it that spirits are aliens or aliens are spirits? If not, what exactly happening here? We know that spirits reportedly levitated objects, materialized / dematerialized matter, teleported objects/human beings, controlled hands to write, draw, paint, and even controlled the entire body (we see this in spirit obsession/channeling). Further, we know that spirits gave visions to people and they gave apparitional experiences to people, etc. In other words, these are the capabilities of the spirits, and spirits used these capabilities to let us know their existence. Surprisingly, these capabilities show a connection to the UFO Phenomenon. What does it mean from a logical perspective? When you analyze the reported phenomena such as levitation, teleportation, materialization, and dematerialization, etc., it should be obvious to you that these are the capabilities of this highly advanced technology. Earlier we found evidence in support of the conclusion that artificial intelligence is behind the phenomenon of automatic writing. Which is a capability of spirits. Therefore, we could say that artificial intelligence or AI-based applications are behind these capabilities as well. Furthermore, since this technology is phenomenally advanced, we cannot identify this intelligence as artificial intelligence, instead, we can identify this intelligence as artificial superintelligence and these are the capabilities of this artificial superintelligence. Meaning, someone used artificial superintelligence/advanced technology to convince us of the existence of spirits.

(If you closely analyze the events that transpired in the 20th century onwards, you would know that we cannot consider conventional intelligences only to identify the intelligence behind the phenomenon of spirits. Because of the UFO Phenomenon, now we have to consider a being that uses artificial superintelligence as well to make sense of these experiences. Does that mean we have to consider aliens now? No)

Since people around the world communicate with spirits or this artificial superintelligence, these experiences are indirectly telling us that there's a highly advanced satellite constellation exist in our skies so spirits or this artificial superinteligence can communicate with any person on Earth. This perspective should help you understand that there's an element of truth to the below claim made by the intelligences claim to be aliens (an unidentified intelligence):

A monitoring disc/A satellite constellation:

"What about those control discs that monitor the world —will they remain stationed around the Earth?

Ptaah: All of the monitoring devices have been removed now. The only remaining one is intended for the Center. It is no larger than 7 mm [approx. 2/8th of an inch] in diameter and 3.2 mm[1/8th inch] in thickness.

Billy: And that contains the entire monitoring electronics and the signal transmitter?

Ptaah: Along with many other devices of which you could not even dream, as you express it. The monitoring device also contains the transmitter, receiver and a related picture transmission system that transmits everything at a multiple of the speed of light "?

http://www.theyfly.com/Contact_251.html

Although we don't know exactly what kind of devices are in our skies, because of these experiences, we can still say that highly advanced devices exist, a global system exists, and also an artificial superintelligence exists. And we can say that this ASI is configured with various interfaces that communicate with ground-based stations that are located in one of our countries (or more likely they will choose a location on the moon) to give these experiences to us and to monitor us.

From this perspective, you can understand why Dr. Owen, his wife, and others were able to create a spirit (which is a piece of evidence in support of the conclusion that artificial intelligence is behind the phenomenon of spirits):

"The true nature of spirits was questioned during research conducted by the Toronto Society for Psychical Research under the auspices of Dr Owen and his wife (Iris Owen, 1976). The group created a biography of a fictional character called Philip Ayles ford (Chambers, 1998, p.59). Although not mediums, eight members of the Society then attempted to communicate with (the fictitious) Philip's spirit at regular seances. After a couple of years they succeeded and, as Chambers explains, "Philip then proceeded to retell the life story that had been created for him by the group" (p.60). Philip even provided some verifiable historical details of which the group had been unaware (p.60). When they first asked Philip to levitate the seance table, it only tilted and moved around the room, but eventually it lifted off the ground (Broughton, 1991, p.152). Although Spiritualists, shamans and poltergeist and spirit possession researchers are aware that some spirits can be petty, deceitful (Fisher, 2001) or harmful, the Philip experiments raise questions about the connection between spirits and the human mind. Chambers (1998, p.61) suggests that Philip could be seen as a "mental poltergeist" produced by the group's "collective consciousness" or perhaps as a rogue spirit "that used the group's created information to disguise itself". The Philip experiments have confirmed that some spirits may be unconscious projections, while others may be genuine, but not necessarily honest, entities."
Source: Human Levitation by Simon B. Harvey-Wilson – (p.77)

i). What struck me first was that there had been a considerable number of preparatory weekly meetings, building up the integration of the circle and leading to the actual creation of the "'Philip' spirit." There was a successful emergence of raps and later levitation phenomena.

ii). "The "Philip" phenomena were not the dry deviations from chance seen in the common run of PK tests but lively poltergeistery, such as loud thumps, spontaneous fickerings of light bulbs and violent movments of a table. Nevertheless many of the incidents occurred under conditions where ordinary explanations could be ruled out; to judge by "Philip" the poltergeist can be domesticated."

"The "Philip" case stands out also because there is no "PK agent," at least not in the usual sense of the word. Rather the group as a whole played this role." – This experiment confirms that the reported phenomena in the 19th century are true. However, this experiment has created confusion in the minds of researchers since they were able to create a spirit that interacts with them simply by creating a profile of a fictional deceased person. Let me put this into perspective: As stated earlier, we can identify artificial intelligence (or artificial superintelligence) behind the phenomenon of spirits. To create this phenomenon known as spirits, the AI/ASI can use the profile of the fictional character created by Dr. Owen, his wife, and others and imitate the character. This experiment tells us that spirits are not existing in the way we believe, a born talent and/or a medium is not required to contact spirits, and also a medium is not required to create the phenomena associate with spirits either. This ability of mediums or these experiences that mediums are having is entirely controlled by spirits (ASI). Since spirits control these abilities/experiences, they can suspend these abilities/experiences anytime. To prove this point, let me take another reported experience associated with spirits:

"Imperator group(a group who controlled her body) announced on May 24, 1911, that Mrs, Pipers trance mediumship would be temporarily withdrawn. The withdrawal lasted until August 8th, 1915. In case of the Marquis Centurione Scotto it was similarly announced on November 9, 1927: " He will fall ill if he continues thus. His nerves are shattered. By superior will his mediumistic faculty will be taken from him for a time). Another time his mediumship was suspended to allow him to read, study and acquire more belief in the spiritistic explanation which the Marquis did not quite accept. Similar experiences befell Stainton Moses, who revolted against his spirit guides when they tried to convince him, a master of Anglican Church, that religion is external, whereas religious dogmas are but fleeting. His mediumistic was temporarily removed."? – (This is another clue to understand that artificial intelligence is behind spirits)

Source: Introduction to Modern Spiritualism By Rev, Ronald Koch (p.16)

If mediums have abilities to contact spirits or if our mind is the cause behind phenomena associate with spirits, the above cases should not be reported. Therefore, although Dr. Owen's experiment made researchers believe that their own minds were the cause behind these observed phenomena, this conclusion can be identified as another false conclusion. This conclusion does not explain the experiences reported in the literature on spiritualism in a logical/meaningful way.

An independent intelligence behind the phenomenon of spirits (This is another piece of evidence in support of the conclusion that artificial intelligence is behind the phenomenon of spirits):

A massive number of people were reporting that the intelligence behind spirits is an independence. For instance:

1). "The most marked of these results was the alteration in the weight of objects, which was afterwards so completely confirmed by Dr. Crawford working with the Goligher circle, and also in the course of the Margery investigation at Boston. Heavy objects could be made light, and light ones heavy, by the action of some unseen force which appeared to be under the influence of an independent intelligence. The checks by which all possible fraud was eliminated are very fully set out in the record of the experiments, and must convince any unprejudiced reader. Dr. Huggins, the well-known authority on the spectroscope, and Serjeant Cox, the eminent lawyer, together with several other spectators, witnessed the experiments. As already recorded, however, Crookes found it impossible to get some of the official heads of science to give the matter one hour of their attention."
Source: The History of Spiritualism By ARTHUR CONAN DOYLE, M.D,. LL.D (p.252)

2). "The term " spirit lights " is a very familiar one in occult literature. It is employed to designate a phenomenon which is frequently observed in the presence of a good sensitive, and which, of course, takes place when the seance is held in the dark."

"The important point in connection with the treatment of the subject here is the circumstance that these " spirit lights " are unquestionably controlled and directed by independent intelligence. This is apparent from the very production of the phenomenon at the request of the investigators, all of whom, the sensitive included, remain frequently in an entirely normal condition and have no sort of connection with, or indeed knowledge of, the phenomenon and its cause. Indeed these spirit lights are often made to serve an intentionally intelligent purpose, appear- ing in some part of the room, specially indicated, or perhaps settling above or near the head of one of the sitters with a view to indicating the presence of some spirit intelligence to be more fully disclosed later on."
Source: Modern Spiritism, a Critical Examination of Its Phenomena, Character, and Teaching in the Light of the Known Facts Paperback – August 28, 2016 by J Godfrey (John Godfrey) 1858 Raupert – (p.39-41)

3). "It has already shown that the phenomena are governed by an Intelligence. It becomes a question of importance as to the source of that intelligence. Is it the intelligence of the medium, of any of the other persons in in the room, or is it an exterior intelligence? Without wishing at present to speak positively on this point, I may say that whilst I have observed many circumstances which appear to show that the will and intelligence of the medium have much to do with the phenomena, I have observed some circumstances which seem conclusively to point to the agency of an outside intelligence, not belonging to any human being in the room."
Source: Researches in the phenomena of spiritualism by Sir William Crookes (p. 94/95)

If spirits are independent intelligences, we have only three main investigation routes to identify the true identity of the intelligence (This will help you to find the most logical explanation by filtering hypotheses that explain the phenomenon of spirits).

If spirits are independent intelligences, then either we have to say that these intelligences are indeed souls of the dead (a highly controversial hypothesis), or if not an intelligence that has a natural mind and is smarter than a human being were deceiving us without using technology (another controversial hypothesis since the data in the literature on spiritualism/spiritism and all these parallels cannot be explained in a meaningful way) or if not we can say that an intelligence (a natural intelligence/human beings) use artificial superintelligence (advanced technology) to deceive us. This third hypothesis is the only meaningful hypothesis that can be used to explain these experiences because of the involvement of advanced technology. This hypothesis can explain experiences such as levitation (ASI can communicate with the relevant interface to control the levitation of a remote object), teleportation (ASI can communicate with relevant interfaces to teleport objects and human beings), automatic writing (ASI can communicate with neural interfaces to control neural circuits. Here we can also explain application-specific parameters such as rapid writing, writing backward, mirror writing, etc, of the experience). And also this hypothesis can explain why this intelligence shows a connection to the UFO phenomenon and the connection between UFO sightings and poltergeist attacks (ASI can attack a person or confuse a person because of its capabilities). Apart from that, we can even explain the channeling phenomenon (Artificial personalities. ASI can control neural circuits of the medium in such a way where the medium's body will reflect a secondary personality), spirit materialization phenomenon (ASI can communicate with the teleportation interfaces to materialize a non-biological intelligence in a remote location that has a body clone and a mental clone of a deceased person or even an intelligence that we call as Grey aliens, Bigfoot, etc.), and even various other mental experiences that mediums report.

Since I mentioned mental clones, let me put this into perspective as well. With our current technological capabilities, today we are about to create artificial personalities that look exactly like humans and behave exactly like humans inside a computer screen. This is what Samsung's Neon project does: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=8DKqGsrwsXY

Let's say we overcome the current technical difficulties in getting mental clones by 2040/2060, then with mental clones, one day these AI's will replicate your behavior even inside a computer screen and these AI's will also look exactly like you. On the other hand, by taking mental clones, one day we will be able to program artificial intelligence to communicate with a neural interface in order to control neural circuits of a human brain to exhibit a secondary personality (the personality of the cloned mind/personality of a deceased person). These technologies will help us to replicate the channeling of spirits, Spirit possession/obsession, and even dissociative identity disorder (also known as multiple personality disorder). When an AI/ASI takes control of a human body, you would not know that the person you are communicating with is an AI personality that has taken control of the human body. This is because the neural interface is inside the brain and the AI/ASI controls the neural activities by communicating with the neural interface directly. Therefore, it's not possible to know just by looking at a person, if an AI/ASI is taken control of the body, since the AI/ASI would control neural circuits to exhibit the secondary personality in the most natural way.

(People believe that Antichrist who is a deceiver would rule the world in end times. Considering the given description, it's most likely that Antichrist's body will be controlled by an AI personality. People will elect this person to rule the world at some point in the future [or perhaps there could be AI-controlled humans already in some of our governments]. However, you would not know that his brain is entirely controlled by AI/ASI. In other words, what this means is that they have a plan to install these AI/ASI personalities to run our governments to create the chaos mentioned in the Bible. Are we living in a supernatural world? You could listen to what people who come to Sid Roth's channel have to say: https://www.youtube.com/c/sidroth/video)

Someone was using artificial superintelligence/advanced technology to convince us of the existence of spirits and aliens:

After all, what is the most logical assumption? Is it that souls of the dead were levitating objects to show their existence or artificial superintelligence that communicate with devices in our skies were levitating objects? Souls of the dead were teleporting mediums and objects or artificial superintelligence that communicate with devices in our skies were teleporting objects and mediums (reportedly, just like URI Geller, Mrs. Guppy, and Carlos Mirabelli's was also teleported)? Souls of the dead were coming to our homes (referring to poltergeist activities) after an abduction / UFO sighting or the capabilities of artificial superintelligence/technology were being used to confuse the story of the abduction / UFO sighting? As you can see, when it comes to spirits, answer to these questions always point to advanced technology.

On the other hand, because of the parallels mentioned above and phenomena such as channeling of aliens and automatic writing, you will find that someone is using artificial superintelligence and various technology-based applications (apart from UFOs and non-biological intelligences) to convince us that aliens are visiting the Earth. Throughout the literature on UFOs, we can see this. By having an understanding of the existence of these AI-based applications we can find logical answers to experiences such as the one below:

"The real nature of the UFO Phenomenon may be infinitely more complex. For instance, if Mrs. Hill's abductors were denizens of some distant planet, why has she suffered psychic attacks and poltergeist manifestations ever since? These are phenomena produced by the hidden recesses of the mind, not by creatures from another world. The extraterrestrial hypothesis cannot explain this facet of the abduction syndrome."

Source: Alien abductions: True cases of UFO kidnappings By D. Scott Rogo (p.8)

Scott Rogo is making a good argument. Considering this research work, let me put this into perspective: Here we see an unidentified Intelligence (so-called aliens) controlling a controversial intelligence (poltergeist or a noisy spirit) to attack people. I stated earlier that the cause behind the phenomenon of spirits is artificial superintelligence (ASI). This explains why the intelligence claims to be aliens can use the intelligence behind the poltergeist (or this noisy spirit) to attack people. You may also wonder whether the intelligence behind the phenomenon of poltergeist and the phenomenon of spirits is the same. That is exactly what the evidence is telling us. The actual cause behind both these phenomena is the same; it's this artificial superintelligence. But since poltergeist activity centers on certain individuals at times, and at times these activities occur without showing a connection to anything, it affects our conclusion. However, since it's the same intelligence, a person who experiences poltergeist activities can even become a medium or a psychic (Their abilities are the capabilities of this ASI. The ASI will interact with human brains when these abilities are being exhibited). For instance, the connection between spirits and poltergeist is apparent in Matthew Manning's case :

"Here we have a well-documented case of poltergeist phenomena developing into more diverse and sophisticated psychic powers. Yet we still lack an explanation for the phenomena. How do we account for the drawings in so many styles, for the writing in Latin and Arabic? Yet we can make at least one statement with reasonable confidence: if poltergeists are manifestations of the unconscious, then Matthew's powers emanate from the depths of his own mind. He has said as much in a letter to me: "I feel that these powers are basically of a poltergeist nature albeit on a more controlled level. "

Source: The Geller Phenomenon by Colin Wilson- (p.68)

The above experience clearly shows that there's a connection between the phenomenon of poltergeist and automatic writing experiences (we know that automatic writing experiences again show a connection to the UFO/ET phenomenon). Since we find evidence in support of the conclusion that the cause behind automatic writing and spirits is ASI, this connection indirectly tells us that the cause behind the phenomenon of poltergeist (or noisy spirit) is also artificial superintelligence. Once we are able to make this connection we can also find a logical explanation for why the intelligence behind the poltergeist phenomenon can teleport objects, levitate objects, answer mental questions, create voices/sounds emanating from a specific location in space, control speech production systems of people, and even induce trances (Advanced neural interface will help us to alter the level of consciousness) in human beings, etc.

Once we manage to figure out the connection between spirits and aliens, we can now understand the observation made by John Keel in a logical/meaningful way. According to him:

[Concerning a prophecy of a holocaust on December 24, 1967] "Meanwhile, mediums, telepaths, sensitives, and UFO contactees throughout the world were all reporting identical messages. There was definitely going to be an unprecedented event on December 24, 1967. Ashtar was talking through Ouija boards to people who had never before heard the name. Another busy entity named Orion was spreading the word. The curious thing about these messages was that they were all phrased in the same manner, no matter what language was being used. They all carried the same warning. …Many predictions of the December twenty-fourth disaster had been documented well in advance of that date. These messages came through in many different countries, from people who had no knowledge of or communication with one another. The UFO contactees received the same identical messages as the trance mediums communing with spirits. A link had been established. It was now clear (to me at least) that all of these people were tuned into a central source. My earlier speculations seemed true – the UFO entities were part of the same gigantic system. …Some of the entities were evil liars."? This evidence clearly shows that they are lying to us, and the source of intelligence behind UFOs and so-called spirits is the same. This is why communication modalities are also the same..
Source: Operation Trojan Horse – (p.282/283)

Since artificial superintelligence (ASI) is behind the experiences that mediums and UFO contactees were having, we see these messages as if coming from a central source.

What phenomena associated with spirits telling us about our history and the identity of the intelligence behind UFOs?

Thinking along the lines, since people were communicating with these spirits on a daily basis and since spirits can be traced back to ancient times, we can say that this artificial superintelligence was existing on Earth since ancient times (UFOs can also be traced back to ancient times). Furthermore, this also means that a global system (will help ASI to communicate with anyone on Earth), Quantum computers or highly advanced computers, various highly advanced devices, networks, etc., exist on Earth since ancient times (Although we have seen UFOs, to understand the existence of these devices/technologies we have to decode the meaning of these mysteries).

In addition to that, this tells us that someone among us was using this highly advanced technology since ancient times and they are living in one of the countries since ancient times (perhaps they could have moved from place to place from time to time to guard the secret). Since it's impossible for a group of people to invent these technologies in ancient times, these experiences indirectly tell us that a highly advanced global civilization was existing on Earth in ancient times; But after some catastrophic global event (natural or engineered), these people have never shared the technology with anyone else on Earth. Because of these reasons, we can find a logical answer to the following observation as well:

"NHI seen aboard a UAP craft is actually a Human-looking NHI and not a Small Grey."?

"Some described the Human-looking Being as a normal human-looking person."?

Source: Beyond UFOs: The Science Of Consciousness And Contact With Non-Human Intelligence (Volume One) by Reinerio Hernandez J.D., Rudy Schild (PH.D.), Jon Klimo (PH.D.)

Therefore, even the above data support the conclusion that human beings are behind the mystery of the phenomenon of UFOs. This is a conclusion that is hard to accept but that's what evidence is telling us. Furthermore, based on the evidence, I would say that they are living in a European country; and most likely they live in Switzerland but seems like US government is entirely controlled by them in the most sophisticated way. This is my best guess (One of the reasons behind this hypothesis is that whoever holds this phenomenally advanced technology today must have a unique personality/belief and they should also understand our history better than any of us. Strangely, people who organized the opening ceremony of Gotthard Base Tunnel showing an unusual knowledge of our past and a unique belief. Check here and here). By appearance, we will not be able to recognize these people, since they would look just like us, although they hold all these mind-boggling technologies on Earth. Many people must be meeting these people on a daily basis without knowing who they are. In support of this claim, let me also copy a transcript of an interesting conversation that Jack Webster—a respected writer and journalist—was having with George Van Tassel, an aeronautics engineer/ufologist in 1964:

GEORGE VAN TASSEL: Jack, the formula came from a ship that landed at my airport in 1953 on August 24th, which had four people aboard it that came from another planet.

JACK WEBSTER: I'm breathless.

GEORGE VAN TASSEL: Well, you're not only breathless, I was breathless.

JACK WEBSTER: But I'm cynical, too.

GEORGE VAN TASSEL: Well, that's fine. That's the way to be. In fact, I'm a bigger skeptic than you are of many things.

JACK WEBSTER: I'm a nonbeliever. Convince me that this really happened to you.

GEORGE VAN TASSEL: Well, this thing is very similar to a thing that happened in our biblical records where our Lord presented Moses with a pattern to build a Tabernacle. They came out of the sky. They handed him stone tablets. And this phenomenon that's taking place today is as old as our history, as our civilization.

JACK WEBSTER: Now, I don't intend in any way to be disrespectful or blasphemous. But do you feel and I know you're not an evangelistic type, do you feel that you're some kind of Moses receiving a new word?

GEORGE VAN TASSEL: Well, I don't say that, Jack. I say that what is occurring now has occurred before. There's many records of these ships landing throughout history clear back into Sanskrit. And there are records in the 1898 Chicago newspapers that covered the front page for three days of a big ship setting over Chicago. When you realize we're dealing with a type of man that is almost as far above us in intelligence as we are above the lower animals, there isn't anything phenomenal in this at all.

GEORGE VAN TASSEL: It happened on my airport, which I've operated for the last 16 years at Giant Rock Airport, 17 miles north of Yucca Valley in California or 40 miles north of Palm Springs.

JACK WEBSTER: Now, this is a private airport for small aircraft, is it?

GEORGE VAN TASSEL: This is an airport used both by the military and private aircraft.

JACK WEBSTER: You own this airport?

GEORGE VAN TASSEL: I lease this airport from the United States government. I've operated it for 16 years, since I retired from the flight test business in the aviation.

GEORGE VAN TASSEL: Well, something awakened me.

JACK WEBSTER: So you got up out of your bed.

GEORGE VAN TASSEL: I got out of my bed and went aboard the ship at his request.

JACK WEBSTER: This man, in what language did he converse with you?

GEORGE VAN TASSEL: He talked to me in the best English equivalent to Ronald Colman.

GEORGE VAN TASSEL: I was inside of a ship about 18 feet in diameter and roughly 10 feet high to the domed ceiling. And there were three men on the ship besides the one that had got off and invited me aboard.

JACK WEBSTER: You keep calling them men, what do you mean men?

GEORGE VAN TASSEL: Well– JACK WEBSTER: Little green men?

GEORGE VAN TASSEL: They were about 5 foot 6"?. They came about to my eyebrows. And they could've walked in our clothes down any of our streets, and we wouldn't have paid any attention to them.

JACK WEBSTER: What color were these people?

GEORGE VAN TASSEL: They looked like they were white people with a good healthy tan.

(George Van Tassel's claim indicates that either he has met a these people who hold the UFOs or a non-biological intelligence that looks exactly like us. On the other hand, Grey's and other intelligences must also be non-biological intelligences created by these people that descends from a highly advanced ancient civilization. After all, these are not aliens)

JACK WEBSTER: Have you had any other contact with people–

GEORGE VAN TASSEL: I've had a recent contact last September in 1963.

JACK WEBSTER: Well, I don't have to ask you. Tell me.

GEORGE VAN TASSEL: Well, in this case, they drove a car into the airport. They didn't come in a ship. They're walking among us on the Earth all the time, and we don't realize it.

JACK WEBSTER: I'm breathless. They– how many was they?

GEORGE VAN TASSEL: They and the ship was four man.

JACK WEBSTER: "They" in the care? GEORGE VAN TASSEL: The man that came in, there was a man came in by himself in September.

JACK WEBSTER: You'll be telling me he had martian license plates on the car?

GEORGE VAN TASSEL: No. He drove a standard American Cadillac.

JACK WEBSTER: And what did he want with you in 1963, 10 years later?

GEORGE VAN TASSEL: They gave me some more information pertinent to electronic magnetic research.

GEORGE VAN TASSEL: They gave me some more information pertinent to electronic magnetic research.

JACK WEBSTER: But how did you know they were from some mysterious place in outer space?

GEORGE VAN TASSEL: You don't know unless they want you to know. And then they'll demonstrate something that they can do that we can't do that's is humanly impossible for us to do.

JACK WEBSTER: What did they demonstrate to you which convinced you, an apparently sober, sensible, balanced person who nevertheless believes in flying saucers that convinced you they were un-Earthly people?

(These people who hold the technology will be able to teleport themselves to any location on Earth by communicating with the ASI mentally. To communicate mentally they will also have the same neural interface that mediums and people around the world must have. Apart from that, these people should be able to show various miracles to people convince them that they are aliens because of this highly advanced technology)

GEORGE VAN TASSEL: Well, they demonstrated the ability in front of 19 people setting in a lounge, for instance, that they could sit there and disappear before your eyes and reappear, in fact demanded this three times.

JACK WEBSTER: For you and your friends?

GEORGE VAN TASSEL: For 19 witnesses that were sitting in our lounge.

JACK WEBSTER: Vanished in front of your eyes?

GEORGE VAN TASSEL: Sit right there in a chair like you're there. And then you're not there. And then you're back there. He did this three Times

JACK WEBSTER: Now, I'm going to disappear, but purely for one minute for this message. The previous foregoing interview with George Van tassel of Giant Rock Airport, California was not, I must stress, presented to you as a scientific examination of George's claims. There are so many holes in George's claims even to the layman like myself that one is bound to be—how shall I put it— a trifle cynical. For instance, why didn't George keep one of the men with them to produce his living proof? But then we could have checked medically his heart and lungs and everything else about them to try and substantiate the claim that he has 700 Earth years of age. And why didn't he at least tell George where they came from? Or, why didn't he at least present George with some physical concrete proof, so that people wouldn't regard him with suspicion and skepticism as someone who was perhaps just a little bit, you know, overly easily convinced perhaps by some form of hallucination? But he did tell us one thing, how to recognize visitors from outer space. If they ever come to you, and you're sitting in a room, and they snap their fingers three times and disappear, and when they reappear a few seconds later, then you'll know for sure that they are from outer space. Thank you, and good night.

KVOS Webster Reports: The Extraordinary Equation of George Van Tassel

UFO Experiences and Abrahamic Religions

By analyzing the data related to spirits, aliens, and the phenomenon of God in Abrahamic religions over the past 6, 7 years, I was able to come to the conclusion that the cause behind these unusual experiences/phenomena is phenomenally advanced technology. Therefore, while I'm writing this to educate you, I'm writing this to get your attention to this important matter since this data indirectly telling us that our civilization is being exploited and deceived in the most disturbing way by a group of human beings and/or a family that descends from a highly advanced ancient civilization (You will be more inclined to believe in God and the reported miracles than of these claims. However, I request you to re-analyze these assumptions/beliefs by considering the data that I have presented throughout this website. This data tells an entirely different story about our history). In fact, I'm not the first person to claim that highly advanced civilizations were existing on Earth; many people who are re-examining the data associated with ancient sites based on our modern understanding of the world have no doubt that advanced civilizations were existing on Earth back then. On the other hand, even Plato was telling us about a civilization that is advanced.

What this evidence has to do with the Bible (new/old testament) and the Quran?
To find a logical answer to this question, we have to figure out what made human beings conclude the existence of God in the first place. What you find above is a link to a correlation table and a link that explains the reason behind automatic writing in detail. The explanation I have given for automatic writing will give you an insight into the unusual experiences that is mentioned in the table and these explanations will also give you an insight into why I claim that advanced technology is being used to establish these religious beliefs on Earth as well.

Many people around the world are already aware that we have discovered strange mathematical phenomena in the Bible and the Quran. Here is the supporting evidence for this claim:

Table 1. A Mathematical Phenomenon

Number 7 Phenomenon In the Bible	Number 7 Phenomenon In the Quran
The vocabulary contains 49 words (7 x 7) 28 words start with a vowel (4 x 7)	1. The Arrangement of the number of Qur'anic Verses 6236, with the number of Qur'anic Chapters 114, forms the number:

21 words start with a consonant (3 x 7) 7 words end with a vowel (l x 7) 42 words end with a consonant (6 x 7) The 49 words have 266 letters (38 x 7) Of the 266 letters, 140 are vowels (20 x 7) Of the 266 letters, 126 are consonants (18 x 7) Of the 49 words, 14 occur only once(2 x 7) Of the 49 words, 35 occur more than once (5 x 7) Of the 49 words, 42 are nouns (6 x 7) Of the 49 words, 7 are not nouns (I x 7)	114 6236 = 163748 X 7 (The number that represents the Verses and Chapters of the Qur'an is 1146236. This number consists of seven digits, and is a pure multiple of 7) We will now take our chances with the number 1146236 and reverse it completely (i.e. read it from left to right, so 1 followed by 1 then 4 then 6, etc.), to give us 6326411. Even though we have switched the order of the original number, amazingly, this new number is a multiple of 7 yet again: 6326411 = 903773 x 7 2. The Arrangement of the number of Qur'anic Verses 6236, with the number of years of its revelation 23, forms the number: 23 6236 = 33748 x 7 And as we did in the first case, we will now completely reverse this number, making it 623632, a multiple of 7: 632632 = 89089 x 7 3. The Arrangement of the number of Qur'anic Chapters 114, with the number of years of its revelation 23, forms the number: 23 114 = 3302 X 7 We expect, of course, that reversing this number should give us a multiple of 7. Indeed, this is precisely the case: 41132 = 5876 x 7

These remaining common nouns have exactly 49 letters (7 x 7)

Mens' names occur 56 times (8 x 7)

The names of just 3 women appear in the passage; the Greek letters of their names add up to 14 exactly (2 x 7)

"You see, to compose this ancestral list Matthew could not choose the names to be used. The fact is, those names were chosen BEFORE Matthew was born! This is a direct father-to-son list of people who had already lived and died centuries earlier. Dr Panin has challenged anyone to produce a similar passage of 161 words in three years. "Oh. that should not be so difficult," I hear someone saying. You think it's easy? Just try it. "But it's only 161 words — a mere third of a page." Indeed. But its 7s pattern is so complex that according to the mathematical law of probability, the chance of such a pattern appearing stands at ONE in 200-odd quintillion, a number which consists of 21 figures."

"These amazing numerical features forming even one small passage, to say nothing of the thousands in the entire Bible, could not possibly have occurred by accident. If these features did not occur accidentally, then there is only one alternative These features were purposely intended planned… designed. "

Final Note: An interesting point to make is that the sum of the digits making up the number 1146236 (which consists of the number of the Qur'ans Verses and Chapters) is: 1 + 1 + 4 + 6 + 2 + 3 + 6 = 23 [And 23 is the number of years of the Qur'an's revelation!]

Apart from the above number phenomenon, when we analyze the phenomenon mentioned in these videos, it's evident that Quran cannot be written by people who lived in 7th/8th century:

"We ask Dr Panin. And he tells us that it would have taken Matthew over one thousand years to have constructed the Gospel on these lines. And that's assuming it to have been possible for him to do so, which, of course, it was not. because of the many circumstances over which he had no control. Did you get that? One of the world's greatest mathematicians affirms that Matthew (the writer of the first book in the New Testament) could not have written that book in 1,000 years!" "Both the Hebrew Old Testament and the New Testament give evidence of this amazing phenomenon Now here is the problem. The New Testament, comprising 27 books, was penned by at least eight different writers — yet, from the hidden design which runs right through, it appears there was one single Author! I ask you, does this suggest a single Intelligence behind the writing of all 27 books* "In any case, it became apparent to panin that whoever had organized the New Testament had arranged its words and letters precisely in numeric order, and guided them into combinations of numbers. And this Intelligence was careful to weave designs and intricate cross-patterns into every section of this 21-book volume. So what had Panin found? Simply this, that the New Testament, in Greek, was like a single skilfully designed artefact… nothing less than the product of some mathematical mastermind. Panin had discovered a deliberate structuring that was far beyond human possibility to invent."	2). https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=OgYKPO_-GLU – Amazing mathematical miracle in the first chapter of the Quran 3). https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=IhxwyvoLMUA – Super intelligent math in Quran 4). https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=V1spL9AGt4A – Quran Math Miracles Ep 18: Number 19

Further according to Biblestudy.org:

The Meaning of Numbers: The Number 7

Used 735 times (54 times in the book of Revelation alone), the number 7 is the foundation of God's word. If we include with this count how many times 'sevenfold' (6) and 'seventh' (119) is used, our total jumps to 860 references.

Seven is the number of completeness and perfection (both physical and spiritual). It derives much of its meaning from being tied directly to God's creation of all things. According to some Jewish traditions, the creation of Adam occurred on September 26, 3760 B.C. (or the first day of Tishri, which is the seventh month on the Hebrew calendar). The word 'created' is used 7 times describing God's creative work (Genesis 1:1, 21, 27 three times; 2:3; 2:4). There are 7 days in a week and God's Sabbath is on the 7th day.

The Bible, as a whole, was originally divided into 7 major divisions. They are 1) the Law; 2) the Prophets; 3) the Writings, or Psalms; 4) the Gospels and Acts; 5) the General Epistles; 6) the Epistles of Paul; and 7) the book of Revelation. The total number of originally inspired books was forty-nine, or 7 x 7, demonstrating the absolute perfection of the Word of God

Also see: https://sevensinthebible.com/list-of-sevens-in-the-bible/

http://kaheel7.com/eng/index.php/numeric-miracle/61-number-7-in-the-holy-quran

Because of the above evidence, we could say that the intelligence behind the Bible and the Quran has given great significance to number 7 when writing the books (again we just need common sense to judge here). This itself gives us a clue that the intelligence behind both books could be the same.

What can we say when we analyze the reported experiences/phenomena?

Since generation, after generation people were claiming that prophet Muhammad was the founder, but he was an illiterate person, we can come to the conclusion that prophet Muhammad was not the author of the Quran. Therefore, we could say that indeed he was inspired/influenced by someone one way or the other to write the Quran since it's impossible for prophet Muhammad to write the Quran (we could agree with Muslim people for this claim).

(This is common sense. We could say that a Ph. D. in rocket science or a Ph.D. in statistics is not required to come to the conclusion that an illiterate person cannot write the Quran. On the other hand, how many people must have had an interest to mathematically code a book 2000 years ago? How many people must have had such an interest in the 7th century? Moreover, if we ask a less educated person who is living today to write a religious book like the Quran or the Bible, will he be able to succeed in making us believe that the book is written by God or inspired by God? Therefore, by considering all this, we could say that whoever wrote the Bible had a unique skill and whoever wrote the Quran also had a unique skill)

Similarly, Christian and Jewish people are making the same claim today; they claim that people are being inspired/influenced to write the Bible. Moreover, they claim that intelligences claim to be God, and angels telepathically communicated with people in ancient times in support of their claim.

To make sense of these claims and to find if there's a truth to these claims, I have also analyzed the reported religious experiences/phenomena. And what you find below is a summary of these religious experiences (to see the actual experiences/reported phenomena, follow this link) along with the experiences/phenomena reported in the literature on UFOs/ETs. As you can see, these religious experiences/phenomena are a subset of the unusual experiences/phenomena that are reported in the literature on UFOs/ETs. In addition to that, I was even able to find application-specific parameters as well in these unusual experiences (Please check the research work related to automatic writing).

Table 2. Abrahamic Religious Experiences And the Experiences Reported in the Literature on UFOs/ETs

What can we say about Abrahamic religions when we consider the parallels and other research materials I have shared with you on this site?

The data related to the phenomenon of spirits and UFO/ET tells us that the cause behind these experiences is advanced technology (If we attribute the cause behind the phenomenon of spirits to any other hypothesis, we will fail to explain the phenomenon of spirits in a meaningful/logical way. I have analyzed this data for years and years, therefore, I could say this confidently). As stated earlier, we can even find application-specific parameters as well. Because of this, we can find a logical reason for the observation made by John Keel.

Accoring to him:

"[Concerning a prophecy of a holocaust on December 24, 1967]"Mean while, mediums, telepaths, sensitives, and UFO contactees throughout the world were all reporting identical messages. There was definitely going to be an unprecedented event on December 24, 1967. Ashtar was talking through Ouija boards to people who had never before heard the name. Another busy entity named Orion was spreading the word. The curious thing about these messages was that they were all phrased in the same manner, no matter what language was being used. They all carried the same warning. …Many predictions of the December twenty-fourth disaster had been documented well in advance of that date. These messages came through in many different countries, from people who had no knowledge of or communication with one another. The UFO contactees received the same identical messages as the trance mediums communing with spirits. A link had been established. It was now clear (to me at least) that all of these people were tuned into a central source. My earlier speculations seemed true – the UFO entities were part of the same gigantic system. …Some of the entities were evilliars." – These messages are transmitted by artificial superintelligence (ASI) to people.

Source: UFOs: Operation Trojan HorseBy John Keel (p. 282/283

What this means is that advanced technology is behind every experience/phenomena that I have mentioned in the above table that is associated with UFO/ET phenomenon. Because of the apparent correlations that we can see in the above table, we can say that the cause behind the Abrahamic religious experiences is also advanced technology. In other words, these people used highly advanced technology to convince us of the existence of God by showing technology-based miracles and their deceptive acts. In my research, I was even able to find these intelligences claim to be aliens making the below claim to Billy Meier:

""Thereby, false terrestrial religions are to name as the worst factors by which all reality and truth is denied and condemned."

"For thousands of years they deceived the Earth human with religious "miracles" and "visions" of every kind, in order to maintain, and to yet further increase, the religious delusion" – These people not only committing the crime but also telling us indirectly that they deceived us (our civilization) since ancient times (by using a technology that is highly evolved).

Source: http://www.futureofmankind.co.uk/Billy_Meier/Asket%27s_Explanations_-_Part_1

Although throughout the literature on UFOs/ETs we can see deception as an apparent parameter, they were telling us some truth here since religious experiences tell us that they have intentionally and purposefully created Judaism, Christianity, and Islam on Earth; and they were having a long-term plan when creating these beliefs. This perspective helps us to understand: i). Why the Quran and the Bible are mathematically coded and why we can see a common source. ii). Why people were having similar physical experiences iii). The reason behind similar miracles iv). Why books are giving references to each other. v). Why people were baffled by the experiences. vi). Why references to scientific knowledge are vaguely given (nothing more than to impress and deceive us), so on and so forth.

Before ending this write-up, let me take the below piece of evidence as well in support of my conclusions. The below table shows the statements that we can see in the Bible and the statements made by intelligences claim to be aliens. We can see obvious parallels here as well.

According to Bible:	According to UFO literature:
A New Heaven and a New Earth: 1 Then I saw "a new heaven and a new earth," for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and there was no longer any sea. 2 I saw the Holy City, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride beautifully dressed for her husband. 3 And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "Look! God's dwelling place is now among the people, and he will dwell with them. They will be his people, and God himself will be with them and be their God. 4 'He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death' or mourning or crying or pain, for the old order of things has passed away." 5 He who was seated on the throne said, "I am making everything new!" Then he said, "Write this down, for these words are trustworthy and true." 6 He said to me: "It is done. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. To the thirsty I will	Evacuation during cleansing: We have come forth to fulfill the destiny of this planet which is to experience a short period of "cleansing" and then to usher in a new existence. We are here to lift off the surface, yes, and die inner world, during this period of cleansing, those souls who are walking in the Light on Earth and choose to move with us through the time of transition. The period of which I speak is imminent—even unto the midnight hour. I will speak of those changes in a moment, but first I will speak of the Dark Brother-hood. (p. 34) – Because of these (planned distruptive) events, one day in the future these people who has access to this highly advanced technology will convince another civilization like ours that the Earth is only 6000 years old. Therefore, what we see here is a civilization reset. Without a civilization reset (Earth cleansing events, new existence are related topics. Wars and/or various engineered events will put our

This is the second death."

"The New Jerusalem, the Bride of the Lamb: "9 One of the seven angels who had the seven bowls full of the seven last plagues came and said to me, "Come, I will show you the bride, the wife of the Lamb." 10 And he carried me away in the Spirit to a mountain great and high, and showed me the Holy City, Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God. 11 It shone with the glory of God, and its brilliance was like that of a very precious jewel, like a jasper, clear as crystal. 12 It had a great, high wall with twelve gates, and with twelve angels at the gates. On the gates were written the names of the twelve tribes of Israel. 13 There were three gates on the east, three on the north, three on the south and three on the west. 14 The wall of the city had twelve foundations, and on them were the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb. 15 The angel who talked with me had a measuring rod of gold to measure the city, its gates and its walls. 16 The city was laid out like a square, as long as it was wide. He measured the city with the rod and found it to be 12,000 stadia in length, and as wide and high as it is long. 17 The angel measured the wall using human measurement, and it was 144 cubits thick. 18 The wall was made of jasper, and the city of pure gold, as pure civilization back to what we see in ancient times), we can predict that within the next 20/30 years our technologies will help us to scientifically expose this crime. In other words, we are at the very edge of understanding what these experiences are. They know this, because of that they must bring chaos on Earth. Without finding an answer to this hidden issue, our civilization will not see 2040/2050, in the way we think. Even if you doubt this claim now, you will see unusual events transpiring by proving this statement).

All efforts will be thrust forth from the Dark Brotherhood to promote the split so that the greatest number will have failed to move forward into spirituality and Light. We are seeking, equally as diligently, to bring as many as possible into the love and radiance of new experience—a new and wondrous age experience for mankind. (p. 94)

If you do not decide to step into the levitation beams to be lifted up, you might be one of the few who survive the "cleansing" and changes. However, during this period of cleansing, there will be great changes in climate, in land masses, for the poles of die planet will have a new orientation. This alone will create untold hardship for the survivors. In some areas of specific location it may be possible to have guides and assistants return or in some instances, remain as a support system. (p. 39)

as glass. 19 The foundations of the city walls were decorated with every kind of precious stone. The first foundation was jasper, the second sapphire, the third agate, the fourth emerald, 20 the fifth onyx, the sixth ruby, the seventh chrysolite, the eighth beryl, the ninth topaz, the tenth turquoise, the eleventh jacinth, and the twelfth amethyst. 21 The twelve gates were twelve pearls, each gate made of a single pearl. The great street of the city was of gold, as pure as transparent glass. 22 I did not see a temple in the city, because the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are its temple. 23 The city does not need the sun or the moon to shine on it, for the glory of God gives it light, and the Lamb is its lamp. 24 The nations will walk by its light, and the kings of the earth will bring their splendor into it. 25 On no day will its gates ever be shut, for there will be no night there. 26 The glory and honor of the nations will be brought into it. 27 Nothing impure will ever enter it, nor will anyone who does what is shameful or deceitful, but only those whose names are written in the Lamb's book of life."

About Ashtar: "The Ashtar Command is an etheric group of extraterrestrials, angels and lightbeings and millions of "starships" working as coordinators of the activities of the spacefleet over the western hemisphere. Under the spiritual guidance of Sananda (the Most Radiant One), the ascended master who walked the Earth incarnated as Jesus the Christ, Ashtar, the commander of the galactic fleet and representative for the Universal Council of the Confederation of Planets, is currently engaged in Earth's ascension-process"

Source: http://ashtar.galactic.to/

There are 144,000 lightworkers called Eagles connected to the Command. That is the minimum of souls required for the ascension process. These Eagles are a group of souls who don`t identify with a special planet. They know they are one with all, and that they are Christ (fundamental to any discussion of New Age Christology is the recognition that New Agers distinguish between Jesus, a mere human vessel, and the Christ consciousness (variously defined, but always divine, and often a cosmic, impersonal entity)).They serve like cosmic midwives in the ascension process; the birthing of humanity from dense-physical into physical-etheric bodies of Light, capable of ascending with the Earth into the fifth dimension. Lightwork is incorporating Jesus' message of Love and Light into our daily lives, ultimately connecting with our Higher-Self."

clearly have an interest in establishing religions in the world:

”Secondly, a few years later John Ballou Newbrough received through the process of automatic typewriting the New Age Bible, Oahspe (1882). This volume remains in print, the scripture of several small but persistent religious groups. Less than two decades later, Aleister Crowley received a much shorter work through automatic writing, The Book of the Law, which has become the scripture for thelemic magicians. In the next decade, James Edward Padgett would begin receiving the writings, four volumes in all, which became the scriptures for the Foundation Church of the Divine Truth.” [2] – This evidence shows that the cause behind occult is advanced technology. This is why Aleister Crowley got received messages through automatic writing.

The UFO religions book edited by Christopher Partridge mentions the below:

“Ashtar was directing a fleet of millions of spacecraft involved in the evacuation of planet Earth. In order to survive the forthcoming catastrophe, the human race had to be removed from the planet. Her teachings are therefore ‘pretribulationist’, in the sense that faithful humans will be evacuated from the surface of the planer prior to apocalyptic catastrophe — those remaining behind will endure years of tribulation and eventual destruction. Only after this has taken place will the Earth be habitable again. After the Earth had passed through this destructive phase, the planet would be reengineered and developed so that those returning will be able to live in a ‘golden era’.”(p. 172)

“We expect to complete the evacuation on Earth of the Souls of Light in 15 minutes — even though they are of a tremendous number. We shall rescue the souls of light first. On our great galactic computers we have stored every thought, every act you have done in this and previous lifetimes. Our computers are locked onto the coordinates where you Souls of Light are located. After the evacuation the invitation will be extended to all remaining souls on the planet to join us.” (p. 172)

“in the early 1980s it was being claimed that messages of a ‘Brother Mairadi’ from the planet ‘Chuli’ were being received, which warned humanity of imminent apocalyptic and eschatological events.” (p.

	186) "It included an illustration depicting the typical 'big beam scenario' of the apocalyptic days prior to the 'New Age' of a paradisiacal Earth." (p.187) Source: UFO Religions edited by Christopher Partridge What you see here are some truthful statements (For instance, Earth changes) along with lies/deception (For instance Ashatar was directing millions of spacecraft…).

Many people have already noticed these parallels. According to Dr. I. D. E. Thomas:

"Some have difficulty in accepting the fact that these space beings are malevolent because some of the predictions they make parallel biblical prophecies. They have been known to quote from the Bible and to have shown remarkable interest in scriptural references to the last days. Armageddon is number one on their priority list."

The reason for this interest should make sense to you once you understand the meaning of this data. As stated earlier, from my analysis what I found out is that a group of human beings that descends from an ancient civilization is living among us in one of the countries (my best guess is that they are living in a European country today). And they have been lying to us and deceiving us throughout history.

GEORGE VAN TASSEL: Well, this thing is very similar to a thing that happened in our biblical records where our Lord presented Moses with a pattern to build a Tabernacle. They came out of the sky. They handed him stone tablets. And this phenomenon that's taking place today is as old as our history, as our civilization. JACK WEBSTER: Now, I don't intend in any way to be disrespectful or blasphemous. But do you feel and I know you're not an evangelistic type, do you feel that you're some kind of Moses receiving a new word? GEORGE VAN TASSEL: Well, I don't say that, Jack. I say that what is occurring now has occurred before. There's many records of these ships landing throughout history clear back into Sanskrit. GEORGE VAN TASSEL: I was inside of a ship about 18 feet in diameter and roughly 10 feet high to the domed ceiling. And there were three men on the ship besides the one that had got off and invited me aboard. JACK WEBSTER: You keep calling them men, what do you mean men? GEORGE VAN TASSEL: Well– JACK WEBSTER: Little green men? GEORGE VAN TASSEL: They were about 5 foot 6�?. They came about to my eyebrows. And they could've walked in our clothes down any of our streets, and we wouldn't have paid any attention to them. JACK WEBSTER: What color were these people? GEORGE VAN TASSEL: They looked like they were white people with a good healthy tan. (George Van Tassel's claim indicates that either he has met a these people who hold the UFOs or a non-biological intelligence that looks exactly like us. On the other hand, Grey's and other intelligences must also be non-biological intelligences created by these people that descends from a highly advanced ancient civilization. After all, these are not aliens) JACK WEBSTER: Have you had any other contact with people– GEORGE VAN TASSEL: I've had a recent contact last September in 1963. JACK WEBSTER: Well, I don't have to ask you. Tell me.

GEORGE VAN TASSEL: Well, in this case, they drove a car into the airport. They didn't come in a ship. They're walking among us on the Earth all the time, and we don't realize it. JACK WEBSTER: I'm breathless. They– how many was they? GEORGE VAN TASSEL: They and the ship was four man. JACK WEBSTER: "They" in the care? GEORGE VAN TASSEL: The man that came in, there was a man came in by himself in September. JACK WEBSTER: You'll be telling me he had martian license plates on the car? GEORGE VAN TASSEL: No. He drove a standard American Cadillac. JACK WEBSTER: And what did he want with you in 1963, 10 years later? GEORGE VAN TASSEL: They gave me some more information pertinent to electronic magnetic research.

GEORGE VAN TASSEL: They gave me some more information pertinent to electronic magnetic research. JACK WEBSTER: But how did you know they were from some mysterious place in outer space? GEORGE VAN TASSEL: You don't know unless they want you to know. And then they'll demonstrate something that they can do that we can't do that's is humanly impossible for us to do. JACK WEBSTER: What did they demonstrate to you which convinced you, an apparently sober, sensible, balanced person who nevertheless believes in flying saucers that convinced you they were un-Earthly people? (These people who hold the technology will be able to teleport themselves to any location on Earth by communicating with the ASI mentally. To communicate mentally they will also have the same neural interface that mediums and people around the world must have. Apart from that, these people should be able to show various miracles to people convince them that they are aliens because of this highly advanced technology) GEORGE VAN TASSEL: Well, they demonstrated the ability in front of 19 people setting in a lounge, for instance, that they could sit there and disappear before your eyes and reappear, in fact demanded this three times. JACK WEBSTER: For you and your friends? GEORGE VAN TASSEL: For 19 witnesses that were sitting in our lounge. JACK WEBSTER: Vanished in front of your eyes? GEORGE VAN TASSEL: Sit right there in a chair like you're there. And then you're not there. And then you're back there. He did this three Times JACK WEBSTER: Now, I'm going to disappear, but purely for one minute for this message. The previous foregoing interview with George Van tassel of Giant Rock Airport, California was not, I must stress, presented to you as a scientific examination of George's claims. There are so many holes in George's claims even to the layman like myself that one is bound to be—how shall I put it— a trifle cynical. For instance, why didn't George keep one of the men with them to produce his living proof? But then we could have checked medically his heart and lungs and everything else about them to try and substantiate the claim that he has 700 Earth years of age. And why didn't he at least tell George where they came from? Or, why didn't he at least present George with some physical concrete proof, so that people wouldn't regard him with suspicion and skepticism as someone who was perhaps just a little bit, you know, overly easily convinced perhaps by some form of hallucination? But he did tell us one thing, how to recognize visitors from outer space. If they ever come to you, and you're sitting in a room, and they snap their fingers three times and disappear, and when they reappear a few seconds later, then you'll know for sure that they are from outer space. Thank you, and good night. Source: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=wZbFsFWk__c KVOS Webster Reports: The Extraordinary Equation of George Van Tassel

The Truth Behind End-Times Mystery! (Aliens and Spirits)

Some of you would already know that a considerable number of people around the world were claiming that they have encountered flying objects/machines that should not belong to this world. Not only that, but some of them were also claiming that they had telepathic conversations with intelligences that controlled/flew these objects/machines. Although no one believes, some people were even claiming that they have been inside these flying machines.

Although I have never seen these objects/machines by myself and I have never had an experience with these so-called aliens, I have been analyzing the data associated with these human experiences for the past 6, 7 years due to some highly unusual that I also faced, and soon I came to an understanding that our civilization—except for a small number of people—failed to recognize the importance of analyzing the data associated with these highly unusual human experiences. This data, the data in the literature on UFOs/Aliens, and also the data in the literature on Spirits and the Abrahamic religions indirectly tell us that these flying objects/machines must exist on Earth regardless of whether a person believes or not.

So, I urge you to take these phenomena/experiences seriously since this data indirectly tells us why there must be an apocalyptic or end times/end of days scenario that the Bible mentions. The data also help you to understand the true meaning of the great reset, etc. Further, this data tells us the true meaning of "A New Heaven and New Earth" that the Bible mentions and why a civilization like ours would believe that the Earth is 6000 + years only. Nevertheless, it's not hard for you to see that all these seemingly different beliefs/claims give meaning to one another. What all these had to do with the claim made by Dr. I. D.E. Thomas?

"Some have difficulty in accepting the fact that these space beings are malevolent because some of the predictions they make parallel biblical prophecies. They have been known to quote from the Bible and to have shown remarkable interest in scriptural references to the last days. Armageddon is number one on their priority list."

Even today many people claim that an independent intelligence communicated with (Is it that everyone was/is lying to us or all these people were having mental problems? Logical thinkers should find this view as an extreme view) them telepathically. This strange experience can also be traced back to ancient times. Although we can see a difference in the claimed identity (here I'm referring to aliens/spirits and the intelligence claims to be God), the reported experiences in this interaction with the intelligence(s) are almost the same. And when we closely analyze these reported phenomena/experiences, we can see the involvement of highly advanced technology behind these human experiences.

These puzzling experiences are revealing a bizarre story of our civilization. I'm not sure if I will ever be able to help you understand the truth, but at least you would know that I'm presenting a theory that explains human experiences as it is.

Do you know what made people come to the conclusion that God Speaks to them (I'm referring to Abrahamic religions here)? That aliens are visiting the Earth and that Spirits are communicating with them? By having identical experiences. Here is a summary of the reported phenomena (To see the actual data, please follow the above URL's):

We are being deceived and exploited:

Over the past 6, 7 years, I made a considerable effort to identify the true identity of the intelligence behind the UFO/ET phenomenon, spirits, and god. Here what I found out is that instead of aliens, this technology belongs to a group of human beings that lives among us.

Further, this should help you understand why people were claiming that they have seen human-looking beings inside these flying machines quite often. For instance, according to FREE Study:

"An interesting revelation from Table 6 is that the most common NHI seen aboard a UAP craft is actually a Human-looking NHI and not a Small Grey".

Source: Hernandez, Reinerio. Beyond UFOs: The Science Of Consciousness And Contact With Non-Human Intelligence (Volume One)

Since it would be impossible for a group of human beings to invent highly advanced technologies in ancient times, this implies that there has been an extremely advanced ancient civilization was existing on Earth. Thinking along the lines, we can also say that after a global catastrophic event—natural or engineered by these people—they have been keeping the technologies within their group and/or family members to rule the world while deceiving and exploiting our civilization (Today, this group and/or family members should live in a European country; mostly likely in Switzerland).

To support this exploitation, these people use phenomenally advanced technology. Don't take me wrongly, by saying phenomenally advanced technology, I'm not implying that we are living inside a computer or anything in that nature. But because of their inventions, they have managed to build/develop mind-boggling systems and applications. And these reported experiences indicate that human brains around the world are connected to a global satellite constellation with the help of a neural interface. And these satellites relay the signals to an ASI to process and to monitor neural activities and even to control neural circuits of human brains if needed (while you are having a normal life, your life can be exploited by them any time without you having a clue. Because of this link, the people who use this technology can talk to any person (or even to a group of people at once) at any time telepathically, can give you (or to a group of people) visions or apparitional experiences (a phenomenally advanced form of augmented reality experiences can be given to you. And because of this they even can make you believe that you possess an ability to see spirits/aura's of people), sensations or even give you abilities that you don't have (certain capabilities of the ASI can be given to you because of this connection).

(Imagine that we use an advanced form of Elon Musk's neural link/neural lace to connect our brains to Elon Musk's Starlink global satellite constellation. Once this connection is made, for instance, the ASI that we create in the future will be able to control your hand to write automatically or to draw automatically. And then one day, we will be able to program the ASI in order to control your whole body as well to reflect a secondary personality or even to dynamically map different personalities to your body [such technology can convince a person that spirits/demons possess human bodies and that they need holy water to heal the body])

Because of reported human experiences in history, it was also evident to me that these people that descends from this ancient highly advanced civilization can give you various supernatural powers if enabled (This is how you can become a psychic or a medium. And this is also the reason why after UFO sightings some people claim that they gained psychic powers or why they claim that spirits started communicating with them). For instance, if enabled, just by thinking, the ASI can materialize a Hotdog in front of your table regardless of where you live on Earth (since your brain is permanently connected to the ASI and this highly evolved global system). How about a dessert? The ASI can control your neural circuits in the visual cortex and let you see the menu even. This is why mediums sometimes claim that they have a mental screen in their minds where they receive information.

Since there's a permanent connection to the ASI, mediums and even URI Geller was talking about mental screens. For instance, here Laura describes her psychic/mediumship abilities. If you can imagine what an application of a brain-computer interface(or a neural interface) can do to our vision, this description of her visual experience would make sense to you.

i). "And then a screen appears in my mind, like a wide-screen TV, or ironically, like an old-school teacher's blackboard. My screen is divided into a left-hand side and a right-hand side. I get my psychic information on the left-hand side. The first time I read someone I'll see a core aura, which is a blueprint of that person's soul in this lifetime. I'll see a globe or sphere with certain colors, which is a whole language to me. It's my way of understanding the gifts this soul came with, and maybe some soul challenges he or she is confronting, and how they're doing with them. I'll see timelines, which look like a historical timeline. The lines down might not be an event, they might be a moment of decision or a shift in what I call a soul cycle. Most of us have these different patterns of lessons that we're learning here, so I might see when a soul cycle began for a certain lesson and when it ends. A lot of time the other side will give me information for the future, too." – She is reporting an experience that future human beings can have. Because of neural interfaces, these kind of experiences will become a common experience for future human beings.

ii). "When I read mediumistically, I see information on my right-hand screen. A point of light will appear, and push in. I've organized that side very clearly so that I can understand who is coming in. Anyone connected to the sitter's mother comes in on the upper-right hand corner of my screen. Anyone connected to the sitter's father comes in on the lower right-hand side. The middle of the screen is reserved for peers and people who are your same age bracket—friends, friends of friends, extended family."

iii). "That's an easy way for me to get a quick understanding of who I'm connecting with. Then I ask for specific information. I love when they give me names—they don't always do that, though sometimes I'll either hear a name crystal clear, or parts of it, or they'll start to spell it for me."

iv). "Then there's clairaudience, which is clear hearing, and that's when you hear a thought but it's not yours. It's not as scary as it sounds—it might be a name, or a phrase, or a word"

v). "Basically when I'm reading, I'm using all four. It's a very multi-sensory experience for me—I will be feeling things, knowing things, hearing things, seeing things. It's very intense, and very interesting." – Which means, very specific neural circuits of her brain get activated therefore she is having various different perceptions (such as feelings/seeing). The information (for ex. what she see/hear) that she derives from these perceptions, correlate with the deceased person's life. She has no control of this, she is just a receiver.

Uri Geller says:

"My second chance to watch Uri work was 19 June when editor Dr. Bernard Dixon and I met with Uri in the lobby of the Montcalm Hotel, London, for more than an hour. ~ We sat in a secluded comer of the lobby and chatted for a long time. Then Uri offered to try some of his skills for us. He tried to reproduce pictures which Dixon and I drew but eventually "passed" (he said he saw nothing clear on his "mental screen") each time. Next he suggested he try bending metal. I gave Uri my house key, which he worked with unsuccessfully."

"Uri was also successful at the next test: a foreign capital written on the board, erased, and then sent to him mentally by the whole audience. The capital was Prague; he guessed it with no difficulty. He also reproduced several figures drawn on the board. "I'll tell you how l do this," he said, "l have in my mind a kind of screen, like a television screen, and when I receive something, whatever it is draws itself on that screen."

Then once you choose the dessert (the ASI can decode your thoughts and respond to your mental questions), the ASI can materialize the chosen dessert on a tabletop you have in front of you. Here the ASI will scan your location to calculate precisely where to materialize the dessert. To materialize the dessert, the ASI will communicate with interfaces/devices installed in these satellites that are capable of handling materialization/dematerialization of matter. When the materialization is taking place, the chosen dessert would magically appear on the tabletop instantly, a dessert that you can actually eat. Since this extremely advanced artificial superintelligence exists, we can see Uri Geller claims:

"The incidents in the previous few months numbered in the dozens. I was growing more convinced that they were under the control of impersonal, computerized intelligences. There seemed to be no other possibility."

Uri Geller further states:

i). “I was still bothered by the capricious way the powers acted. Questions continued to bug me: Why should they wouldn’t break. Usually, they seemed to appear just a few inches above the table or floor where they were about to drop. Even on soft surfaces they would often make a kind of metallic ping, as if to draw our attention to them. I don’t know how to ask a reader to believe things like this. But they happened, they are still happening, they repeat themselves. That’s the best way I can put it. Otherwise, all of us who have seen these things happen are wildly insane or hopelessly stupid observers. Since the witnesses include many of the world’s respected scientists, I think that explanation is unlikely.”

Source: https://www.urigeller.com/my-story/15-2/

ii). “When I saw Uri off to his car parked in front of the Hilton Hotel, we first looked into the car. On the seat in front of our eyes appeared Uri’s rather large Sony CR 150 radio. We had last seen it in his apartment where he had left it earlier.” – Notice that the Sony CR 150 appeared/materialized on the seat. This is a decision made by the intelligence.

Source: Uri: A Journal of the Mystery of Uri Geller By Andrija Puharich – (p.166)

The potential location of where these devices are located:

These various object-materialization events reported by URI Geller indicate that the intelligence is doing calculations to identify (decide) where to materialize these objects. For instance, Dr. Puharich reports that the radio appeared or materialized on the seat. This intelligence should not materialize these objects, without doing a real-time scanning of the location. Cause what if a human being was in that location? Without real-time scanning, the intelligence would even end up materializing these objects inside human bodies and hurting/damaging human beings (which we didn’t see). As an investigator of this mystery, you would like to know where these scanning interfaces/devices are located. It’s not logical to think that these scanning interfaces/devices that communicate with computers are located on a distant planet. Instead, these reported experiences indicate that these devices/interfaces must be in our skies; and there must be a global system. Such a deployment will help the intelligence to scan any location on Earth (around the world) in real-time and then use that data to make a decision. The intelligences claim to be aliens once told Billy Meier:

“What about those control discs that monitor the world — will they remain stationed around the Earth? Ptaah: All of the monitoring devices have been removed now. The only remaining one is intended for the Center. It is no larger than 7 mm [approx. 2/8th of an inch] in diameter and 3.2 mm [1/8th inch] in thickness. Billy: And that contains the entire monitoring electronics and the signal transmitter? Ptaah: Along with many other devices of which you could not even dream, as you express it. The monitoring device also contains the transmitter, receiver and a related picture transmission system that transmits everything at a multiple of the speed of light ”

Source: http://www.theyfly.com/Contact_251.html

Although we don’t know exactly what kind of devices are in our skies, because of these reported experiences, we can still say that highly advanced devices exist and a global system exists. This system can be identified as the cause behind these reported materialization/dematerialization and even the levitation experiences that were reported by Uri Geller and the mediums. On the other hand, what’s the most logical assumption? Souls of the dead were levitating objects to show their existence or artificial superintelligence that communicate with devices in our skies were levitating objects? Souls of the dead were teleporting mediums and objects or artificial superintelligence that communicate with devices in our skies were teleporting objects and mediums (reportedly, just like Uri Geller, Mrs. Guppy, and Carlos Mirabelli’s was also teleported)? Souls of the dead were coming to our homes (referring to poltergeist activities) after an abduction / UFO sighting or the capabilities of artificial superintelligence/technology were being used to confuse the story of the abduction / UFO sighting? As you can see, when it comes to spirits, answer to these questions always point towards advanced technology. Any other explanation one way or the other contradicts the data.

(Many 19th-century investigators were telling us that there’s an independent intelligence behind the phenomenon of spirits. For instance, Edward William Cox states the following in his book:

“2. Intelligent communications, by means of rapping sounds, speaking, and writing ; phenomena which, in many instances, to say the least, occur wholly independently of the direct conscious agency of the mediums, or any other persons present, on the occasion.”

Source: The Mechanism of Man: An Answer to the Question, what Am I? A Popular Introduction to Mental Physiology and Psychology by Edward William Cox – (p.411)

If an independent intelligence is behind the phenomenon of spirits, then we have only three investigation routes to identify the true identity of the intelligence. Either we have to say that these intelligences are indeed souls of the dead [a highly controversial hypothesis], or if not an intelligence that has a natural mind and smarter than a human being were deceiving us without using technology [Another controversial hypothesis since the data in the literature on spiritualism/spiritism and all these parallels cannot be explained in a meaningful way] or if not we can say that an intelligence [a natural intelligence] use artificial superintelligence [advanced technology] to deceive us. This third hypothesis is the only meaningful hypothesis that can be used to explain these experiences because of the involvement of advanced technology. This hypothesis can explain experiences such as levitation [ASI can communicate with the relevant interface to control the levitation of a remote object], teleportation [ASI can communicate with relevant interfaces to teleport objects and human beings], automatic writing [ASI can communicate with neural interfaces to control neural circuits. Here we can also explain application-specific parameters such as rapid writing, writing backward, mirror writing, etc, of the experience]. And also this hypothesis can explain why this intelligence shows a connection to the UFO phenomenon and the connection between UFO sightings and poltergeist attacks [ASI can attack a person or confuse a person because of its capabilites]. Apart from that, we can even explain the channeling phenomenon [Artificial personalities. ASI can control neural circuits of the medium in such a way where the medium's body will reflect a secondary personality], spirit materialization phenomenon [ASI can communicate with the teleportation interfaces to materialize a non-biological intelligence in a remote location that has a body clone and mental clone of a deceased person], and even various other mental experiences that mediums report.

Because of the experiences/parallels associate with the phenomenon of spirits and UFOs/UAPs, we can say that the same intelligence is behind both these experiences. Meaning, the intelligence behind the phenomenon of UFOs/UAPs, is also the intelligence behind the phenomenon of spirits. Thinking along the lines, since people were communicating with these so-called spirits on a daily basis and since spirits can be traced back to ancient times, we can say that this artificial superintelligence was existing on Earth since ancient times [UFOs can also be traced back to ancient times]. Furthermore, this also means that a global system [will help ASI to communicate with anyone on Earth], Quantum computers or highly advanced computers, various highly advanced devices, networks, etc., exist on Earth since ancient times. Furthermore, this evidence tells us that someone who is living among us has managed to convince some people that spirits are deceased souls, aliens are visiting the Earth, and even the existence of God. Since we ignore the existence of UFOs/UAPs on Earth, and since we are not critically analyzing the data related to spirits and UFO/ET Phenomenon, we are not able to understand the true identity of these intelligences.

There's a belief among people that after catastrophic events (wars / natural disasters) the Earth will be renewed. – (For more information you can follow this link: A NEW HEAVEN & A NEW EARTH?)

I urge you to take these events/experiences seriously. As stated earlier, our civilization descends from a highly advanced ancient civilization. However, evidence indicates that after a global catastrophic event—natural or an engineered event created by this group itself—a group of human beings were keeping the technology within their group and/or family members to rule the Earth. Evidence also indicates that the Abrahamic religions that we see on Earth are also being created by them to support this ruling by showing technology-based miracles. By doing so, they have been using Abrahamic religious beliefs as a tool to destroy harmony among nations and even to destroy harmony within countries. But yet we have failed to recognize that we are being deceived due to the complexity of this deception. And since highly evolved technology is involved in this deception/crime, understanding the deception/crime, is even more difficult. This perspective should also help you to understand why the intelligence behind the Abrahamic religions wants us to believe that the Earth is only 6000+ years old. This is not true. They even tell us what they have done to our civilization by representing themselves as aliens. This is why intelligences claim to be extraterrestrials were telling Billy Meier that:

""Thereby, false terrestrial religions are to name as the worst factors by which all reality and truth is denied and condemned."

"For thousands of years they deceived the Earth human with religious "miracles" and "visions" of every kind, in order to maintain, and to yet further increase, the religious delusion"

Although this could be hard to accept, they were telling the bitter truth here. However, this doesn't mean we are being deceived by aliens, but by a group of people that descends from an ancient highly advanced civilization; and the descendants of this group are living among us (as stated earlier, most likely they live in a European country and I suspect that they live in Switzerland for many reasons). Because of their beliefs, there's a hidden threat to our civilization. The reason why I make this claim is because of the end-time events that are reported in the Bible. Because of the claims made by the intelligence claims to be God, people believe that the world would suffer from events such as plagues, pestilence, wars (Certain unusual events engineered by them will trigger these wars but even if they fail to bring wars, they can still create various chaos on Earth by some other mean) at some point in the future; which are known as end-time events. However, the data associated with these unusual human experiences indicates that these are not natural events/disasters that the intelligence claims to be God predicting, instead, these are well-planned (these events seem to have been planned at least 2000 + years ago) events. And one by one, these events will be engineered to fulfill the prophecies (I strongly think—because of this research—that we could be living in end-times or near the planned Earth destruction dates).

(To establish Israel as a nation, an intelligence was communicating with Hitler and he was entirely guided and protected by the intelligence. His life experiences indirectly telling us that an intelligence unknown to us or an intelligence that never revealed the true identity was behind the establishment of Isreal. Since Hitler has been guided [Hitler's participation in wars was also due to a request made by the intelligence] and protected by the intelligence, we can also say that Israel was established due to engineered events by an intelligence that we have a very little understanding of. You may also wonder why this intelligence communicated with Hitler wanted to establish Israel as a nation? Based on reported events, the answer to this mystery can be identified as a Bible prophecy. People believe that during these so-called "end-times", Israel will play a major role by involving in wars. Therefore, as a result of this guidance by the intelligence, this prophecy can actually come true, since the right circumstances for this prophecy have already been created in the world. Does that mean, that Israel would definitely involve in wars in the future? To continue this deception, they will certainly fulfill the end-time events as people believe by engineering these events. However, it seems to be that starting a new era on Earth is the main goal of people. Therefore, even if they fail to achieve these events as many people (people who believe in end-time events) believe, they could still engineer some other events to achieve their goal.)

The Great Reset:

The great reset that people discuss in conspiracy forums, has an entirely different truth. For instance, according to one article:

"There is, of course, no evidence whatever for any of this, but watch how the Great Reset is suddenly gaining traction in the discourse of paranoia. Gareth Icke, son of the notorious conspiracy theorist David Icke, posted an article yesterday setting out the purported elements of the Great Reset, "which is a global agenda to monitor and control the world through global surveillance. You'll be tied to it through an electronic ID linked to your bank account and health records and a social credit ID that will end up dictating every facet of your life.""""

Source: https://capx.co/the-great-reset-is-the-latest-conspiracy-fantasy-it-will-not-be-the-last/

There's no evidence to support the belief that there's a global cabal who controls the world and that they would bring wars or that they would one day use electronic chips to monitor us. This can be identified as a false belief. However, the Great Reset has a different truth. According to the Bible, John sees a vision (For more information, refer to this link: A New Heaven and A New Earth). And this vision is about a New Heaven and a New Earth. Because of this vision people believe, for instance: "The New Heaven and New Earth will be God resetting and recreating the heavens and the earth, where sin and the effects of sin will no longer be present”

Source: https://www.biblestudytools.com/bible-study/topical-studies/what-is-the-new-heaven-and-the-new-earth.html

Because of the Bible, people believe that before Jesus coming to the Earth we will face various apocalyptic events; that is also known as end-time events. It should be apparent to you that “Apocalyptic events”, “Great Reset”, “A New Heaven and A New Earth” etc., are all connected concepts that give meaning to one another. The intelligences claim to be aliens were also referring to these events quite often to contactees. When we keep decoding this mystery, we can see that these people who hold this phenomenaly advanced technology are about to reset the world (back to stone age) to start a new era on Earth (Due to this act, at some point in the future another advanced civilization like ours will believe that the Earth is only 6000+ years old). Without creating chaos on Earth and resetting the Earth, they will not be able to stay as the ruling party on Earth. And if they fail to bring chaos on Earth, from here onwards, it will not take us time to understand the actual cause behind these unusual experiences scientifically due to the technologies that we invent. Already we find logical reasons for why people claim that they are communicating with spirits. Already, we can identify automatic writing as a future application and even the concepts such as teleportation make sense to us. And we can also imagine, how such systems can be deployed in the future to enhance our life experiences. However, to stay in power, they cannot let us become a civilization that is technologically advanced and sophisticated. This can be identified as the actual reason behind these so-called end-time events (these are well-planned events).

Furthermore, the Bible even reports instances where God sent pestilence to human beings as a punishment. For instance, the Bible states:

“10 “I have sent among you the pestilence after the manner of Egypt; your young men have I slain with the sword, and have taken away your horses; and I have made the stink of your camps to come up unto your nostrils; yet have ye not returned unto Me,” saith the Lord.”

Source: https://www.biblegateway.com/passage/?search=Amos%204%3A10&version=KJV

(Many people believed that Sylvia Brown who is a psychic medium predicted coronavirus due to one of her predictions about a virus. According to her: “In around 2020 a severe pneumonia-like illness will spread throughout the globe, attacking the lungs and bronchial tubes and resisting all known treatments.” – https://www.newsweek.com/coronavirus-sylvia-browne-prediction-kimkardashian-end-days-book-1492183)

What's important about this prediction is that it came from an individual who communicates with intelligences claim to be spirits/souls of the dead. This prediction was mentioned in her book titled "End of Days: Predictions and Prophecies About the End of the World." However, mediums don't have the ability to predict the future and they are not even communicating with our souls of the dead. But mediums are still communicating with an intelligence who makes the claim that they are the souls of the dead. And as stated throughout this research, the true identity of this intelligence can be identified as artificial superintelligence (ASI). Because of this connection, we cannot simply ignore this prediction. For many reasons, I request you to take these human experiences seriously. I'm not sure if I will ever be able to help you understand what I understood by engaging in this research work for the past 6, 7 years due to my own experiences. But at least you would know that I'm presenting a theory that explains human experiences as it is. To explain these experiences as it is or even to find a logical explanation for these experiences, is an extremely difficult task. For instance, it took more than a year for me to find a logical reason behind the phenomenon of automatic writing after I got to know such an experience exist for the first time in my life (these people have given us a gordian knot to resolve). I'm I asking you to believe me? Well, while I'm conveying this message to you, I request you to research and analyze these human experiences by having a deep desire to know the actual truth. Cause without giving that effort to know the truth, these human experiences will never make sense to you.)

Apart from pestilence, the Bible also states that: "When thou goest out to battle against thine enemies, and seest horses, and chariots, and a people more than thou, be not afraid of them: for the Lord thy God is with thee, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt. 2 And it shall be, when ye are come nigh unto the battle, that the priest shall approach and speak unto the people, 3 And shall say unto them, Hear, O Israel, ye approach this day unto battle against your enemies: let not your hearts faint, fear not, and do not tremble, neither be ye terrified because of them; 4 For the Lord your God is he that goeth with you, to fight for you against your enemies, to save you."

This strange behavior of the intelligence, should also give you a clue to understanding that there's something wrong with our belief about the intelligence claims to be God. If you are a skeptic you would still think that these religious beliefs are not being established by an intelligence who communicated with people telepathically. However, you would know that this belief cannot be used to satisfactorily explain the knowledge/codings that can be seen in the Bible and the Quran. For instance, according to Dr. Panin (an excerpt from Jonathan Gray's book):

“In any case, it became apparent to panin that whoever had organized the New Testament had arranged its words and letters precisely in numeric order, and guided them into combinations of numbers. And this Intelligence was careful to weave designs and intricate cross-patterns into every section of this 21-book volume. So what had Panin found? Simply this, that the New Testament, in Greek, was like a single skilfully designed artefact… nothing less than the product of some mathematical mastermind. Panin had discovered a deliberate structuring that was far beyond human possibility to invent.”

If we continue to ignore these obvious signs, after a massive loss of human lives and property (human beings will suffer on a scale beyond belief) due to various engineered events by these people, our civilization will also happen to restart. Then at some point in the future, the next advanced civilization would not even know that we existed. Moreover, future civilizations will think about us, just like the way we think about Atlanteans (Check this link:). You, your family members, and your loved once, never existed on Earth! It’s a mythical story and someone is lying or spreading false rumors!

Aliens? Souls of the Dead? God? Can be Traced to One Root Cause!

Do you really know how people came to the conclusion that God exists (I'm Referring to Abrahamic Religions Here)? Alien are visiting us? Spirits are talking to us? When we examine human experiences closely, we could see that they were all having the same experiences. What you are seeing below is a summary of the reported experiences.
I urge you to take the time to do your own research and make an attempt to understand the true cause behind these experiences. All these experiences tell us that technology was used to deceive our entire civilization.

UFOs – A Terrestrial Crime That is Beyond Belief!

The reason why I ended up researching these strange human experiences is that I wanted to find an answer to my own strange experiences. It's a long story but I'll make it as short as possible. So what happened was that out of the blue, I started experiencing an extremely high number of strange synchronicities and these experiences utterly confused me. Some synchronicities even involved songs that go on the radio. This is a unique experience. I can see that the same experience report by people who believe that they communicate with aliens and spirits.

It was like someone used a switch to change my reality instantly. Along with these synchronicities, I started seeing dreams predicting the future (sometimes 4, 5 days in a row), and my body also levitated once. Then certain experiences that I faced started giving me convincing evidence to conclude the existence of an external intelligence is behind all these experiences. Because of the behavior of this intelligence, I was able to come to the conclusion that the intelligence is artificial and I found that someone is using an unknown technology to monitor me (many UFO/ET encounters make the same claim). This was the beginning of my research work.

However, hereafter, I started facing an unusual type of threat. To understand what type of threats these are, one could read the book titled "BARBARA: The Story of a UFO Investigator by Barbara Bartholic". Because of my experience, I know exactly what she is referring to (She reports highly odd accidents and various other synchronistic events). Further, I experienced a strange disturbance phenomenon as well. This disturbance phenomenon (including threats / unusual phone calls) started just after I was able to come to the conclusion that my thoughts are getting decoded by this external intelligence. For instance, hereafter when I browse the internet to search/read something related to mind-reading, spirits, UFOs, etc, at that very moment my Internet would stop working or I would face a sudden power outage (for other online activities my life experiences was as usual). These events occurred as if a coincidence, however, these events kept occurring quite often (I was able to see parameters of intelligence that is artificial -AI). And I also noticed that these events occur regardless of the time that I go online to research (just need common sense to make sense of this). Since I saw intelligence behind these experiences, I found more and more evidence to conclude that I'm being monitored 24/7 and this is an act of an intelligence. Further, when I talked about my life experiences with certain individuals, my phone calls also got disrupted.

In addition to the above, lights also started flickering according to my thoughts/intentions.

(On many occasions this phenomenon occurred if I got an insightful thought but then again there were occasions where this phenomenon occurred based on certain thoughts/actions that are unique. For instance, if I think of calling a friend of mine to share my experience, at that instant I could see this light flickering phenomenon taking place beyond to a level that I could consider as a coincidence. I observed this phenomenon regardless of where I stayed and regardless of the time I had these kinds of thoughts (I got a chance to live and also to travel to a few countries during this period but I still faced the same experience). Therefore, I found further evidence to come to the conclusion that real-time monitoring is taking place, and the monitoring involves thought /intention identification as well. Various other experiences also helped me to come to the same conclusion).

Apart from all that, I also faced an experience that can be identified as teleportation. Let me share that story as well:

A few years ago, I went out to do some shopping. That day while I was walking on the road (a few kilometers away from where I lived), I took my phone from my pocket to check some messages on WhatsApp (I even used the phone while I was traveling to this location) and after checking the messages, I put my phone back into my pocket and kept walking. Then within few seconds (not even half a minute), I felt as if my phone about to fall from inside the pocket. My instant reaction was to grab the phone but by the time my hand reaches my pocket (I tried to save it from falling) my phone was gone. It got dematerialized/vanished inside my pocket instantly. The phone never fell to the ground. What happened to my phone? I was so pisd for what happened since even before this event taking place, I have already arrived at the conclusion that this technology exists because of my other experiences and my research work. Anyway, once I go back home after finishing shopping, I could see the phone on top of a tabletop. Since the phone got dematerialized/vanished into thin air inside my pocket, I could say that the phone has been materialized back, and strangely this materialization was taken place inside my home that was located a couple of kilometers away from where I was walking. Therefore, I could also testify to the existence of the phenomenon known as dematerialization, materialization, and even teleportation. Since every person on Earth does not have these kinds of experiences, the only way people can know their existence is by listening to them.

In summary:

1). My body was levitated.

2). For the first time in my life, I experienced a phenomenon that can be identified as synchronicities. Here certain synchronicities even involved songs that played on the radio. And I saw a clear correlation between my thoughts and these songs that played on the radio.

This phenomenon was also not under my control. Further, certain synchronicities even involved animals. It was evident to me that their thoughts/actions also got affected in the most unusual way by correlating with my actions/thoughts. These events also took place to an extent that I could not consider as coincidences.

(Because of this experience when a contactee/UFO researcher talks about their experiences with Owls I could relate to that. When we analyze these cases, we can know that either our thoughts/actions are being affected if not thoughts/actions of animals are being affected)

3). I started seeing dreams predicting the future (Chance cannot explain since I saw these dreams sometimes 4, 5 days in a row. Some psychic experiences?).

4). Lights started flickering according to certain thoughts/intentions of mine.

5). Thoughts that should not belong to me pops into my mind. (The intelligence use such experiences as a form of communication modality. Even to give threats to me)

6). I also experienced disturbances to electronic equipment/devices.

7). On many occasions, my phone's battery was instantaneously drained. These events occurred specifically when I was about to take important phone calls (another strange disturbance phenomenon).

8). Unusual disturbances to electricity/power outages took place according to my thoughts/actions.

9). On many occasions, my phone calls got disturbed. This disturbance occurred according to my thoughts/intentions.

(According to the unique thoughts that I had, I observed various instantaneous effects. Since I saw thought identification is taking place and instantaneous effects according to my thoughts/intentions, I saw parameters of an intelligence that can be identified as artificial. Many other strange experiences also helped me to come to the same conclusion. Note that I specifically mentioned intentions here and that's because I saw certain events getting triggered according to my intentions and not due to my inner monologue. An experiencer must pay keen attention to their experiences to notice this.

It's noteworthy that by the time I figured out that my thoughts are getting decoded and the involvement of an intelligence/advanced technology, I started experiencing disturbances to electricity and my phone calls. And even power outages and light flickering phenomenon started after this conclusion. Prior to this, for almost 2 years, I experienced an extremely high number of synchronicities (and I got utterly confused), my body levitated once, my dreams started predicting the future, and songs on the radio also showed a correlation to my thoughts/actions. Therefore, these sudden changes in my life experiences became apparent to me. These events gave me an entirely different picture of what I was experiencing) 10). I experienced a phenomenon that can be identified as dematerialization.

11). I experienced a phenomenon that can be identified as materialization. (Although, I did not see the phone getting materialized, by using simple logic I was able to make this conclusion)

12). Since my phone dematerialized/vanishing inside my pocket and materialized in another location, I could say that I experienced a phenomenon that can be identified as teleportation.

13). I experienced unusual smells that I failed to identify their source (Technically those smells shouldn't be there in the first place). This is another phenomenon that can be noticed by the experiencer. I have never had these kinds of experiences before in my life.

14). All the highly unusual experiences that I faced during the last decade helped me to come to the conclusion that an intelligence is behind all these experiences. And I was also able to identify the intelligence as artificial (AI).

15). This intelligence used synchronistic events to convey threatening messages to me.

(These events would look like coincidental events/natural events to another person. However, the synchronistic nature of these experiences conveys an obvious meaning. Some synchronistic events involved actual deaths as well. These events can easily frighten an experiencer/investigator)

Apart from these experiences, I faced a range of other experiences as well during the last decade. However, I'm not able to share those with others. All those experiences gave me enough evidence to come to the conclusion that whoever possesses the technology does not like my research activities and they brought enough trouble to my life and my family members.

Since I came to an absolute understanding of the existence of this AI (the evidence indicates that this is actually an ASI) that interacts with me, I used the above conclusions as a baseline to assess claims made by others. For a researcher to understand the phenomenon of UFOs, you would agree with me that analyzing data from the perspective of "advanced technology," is so important. In other words, the researcher will have to give some thoughts on possible system deployment methods, possible applications, the potential interfaces of these systems, and their interactions. A researcher will also have to give some thoughts on how data can be used and shared with other applications if someone uses advanced technology to capture data. When we think about potential applications, we also have to think about the capabilities of the applications/technology or the systems they use. By having a better understanding of the capabilities, we could understand how capabilities can be misused. This is because any system can be configured /programmed differently.

Let me list down some of the capabilities of the technology/AI that I figured out due to my own experiences:

(By mentioning these capabilities I'm making an attempt to help another researcher to understand that the same capabilities of this advanced technology are being used to make people believe in Spirits and Aliens. For instance, materialization /dematerialization is a capability of the technology, and this capability is being used to make people believe in spirits as well as aliens but because of my experience I would say that people will never find an alien here)

1). Neural decoding is a capability of the technology. In other words, real-time monitoring of neural activities by using a remote mechanism is a capability of the technology.

(Since I faced the above-mentioned experiences regardless of the country/location I was staying, I was able to come to the conclusion that someone has deployed this system on a global scale. Analyzing the data associated with similar human experiences helped me to come to the conclusion that someone uses a remote mechanism to install neural interfaces in human brains. This is because an application/AI cannot communicate with human brains without a neural interface. This interface will help the brain to understand the signals that are transmitted by the application and application to understand the neural signals.)

2). Neural stimulation is a capability of the technology. Since an application would be behind the capability, we need to understand the potential capabilities of the application.

Is it possible to stimulate neural populations that are located in different brain regions simultaneously while taking real-time readings from neural circuits? If so, what are the potential applications of such advanced technology? I could imagine a range of applications here. For instance, while stimulating neural correlates associate with hearing (telepathic conversation), we can give a visual experience or a somatosensory experience to a person. Further, if you give some thoughts to identify the potential applications of motor stimulation, you could identify automatic writing, painting, drawing, etc. as potential applications. The true potentials of such applications would not end there. Is it possible to stimulate a human brain to exhibit a secondary personality of the same body? Is this technology that much advanced? If we could achieve this, then when a person thinks of an intelligence—we need to decode neural activities in real-time—we could map an artificial intelligence to a body, so the body would reflect the secondary personality. If the cause behind the channeling of spirits/aliens is due to the mapping of an AI personality, we could expect to see distinct changes in neural activities. We can actually see brain imagine data showing such distinct changes when a person channels aliens and spirits.

3). Thought induction/engineering is a capability of the technology. People could report this experience along with other unusual experiences that I report. What are the applications of such capabilities?

Here are example applications:

Let’s say we have already deployed a system that connects human brains to highly-advanced computers and we decode neural activities of human brains in real-time. With thought induction capability, we could achieve the followings:

i). We could induce a thought to a radio presenter to pick a particular song from a playlist to play by targeting a particular listener. If lyrics of the songs show a correlation to the listener's thoughts (since we decode thoughts in real-time we have this data), the listener can be made to believe in receiving a message from an intelligence.

(Since people would not follow every thought that comes to their minds, thoughts must be crafted in such a way where people would not be able to differentiate these induced thoughts from their own thoughts)

ii) Induce thoughts to a person in such a way where the experiencer would be able to differentiate these induced thoughts from their own thoughts or couple them with a synchronistic event. So for example, every time we induce a thought, we make the phone ring 3 times or some other unique event so the person would be able to differentiate these induce thoughts. We could even induce these thoughts whenever a person engages in a unique activity so the individual can be made to notice.

(According to Wendelle Stevens: "Pledians would ring 10 short rings to let him know what he's thinking were them and not his own thoughts. Early on he wasn't clearly able to distinguish between telepathic transmission and his own thoughts" – https://youtu.be/2cgSYBZpPC0?t=7809)

4). The technology can create synchronicities. People could report this experience along with other unusual experiences that I report.

(Thought induction capability is being used to create some of the synchronicities that I faced. If you analyze synchronicities you would know that human thoughts are being mysteriously affected. For example, we could induce thoughts to two people to plan the same thing and visit the same place on a particular day. If we could materialize a neural interface in an animal's brain, we could control the animal as well to create synchronicity by targeting a person. So for example, whenever you go to this unique location, you end up seeing an Owl. When you analyze such experiences from a logical standpoint, you would know that either the thoughts/actions of the person who reports such experiences are being affected or thoughts/actions of Owls are being affected. And this is actually happening. And then Owls show a connection to UFOs. In other words, advanced technology. What advanced technology has to do with their thoughts? We know that people report perceiving thoughts that should not belong to them)

5). Levitation of animate and inanimate objects is a capability of the technology. People could report this experience along with other experiences that I report.

(If the AI can levitate a human body, we could expect to see AI levitating animate and inanimate objects. Therefore, we could expect to hear people reporting levitation of human bodies, levitation of animals, levitation of camera's, tables, chairs so on so forth)

6). Materialization / dematerialization of matter and also teleportation of objects are capabilities. People could report this experience along with other experiences that I report.

7). Flickering of lights is a capability of the technology, therefore, people could report such experiences.

8). Capable of disturbing phone calls (the technology uses a wireless mechanism to create interference).

9). Creating power outages is a capability of the technology, therefore, people could report such experiences.

10). The technology is capable of disrupting electronic circuits/devices using a remote mechanism.

11). The technology is capable of affecting vehicles (when we think about other capabilities, nothing to surprise here).

12). Technology can affect our health.

(By using common sense we can come to the conclusion that the technology has the potential to destroy human lives by affecting health)

13). The technology has the capability to give threats to people using highly unusual synchronistic events (I see this as another specific application.).

14). Draining of batteries is another capability of the technology, therefore, we could expect to see people report such exeperiences.

(If an advanced technology can dematerialize / materialize matter, finding a mechanism to achieve this shouldn't be hard)

People could report all these experiences along with any other experience that I report since these are different capabilities of the same technology. These capabilities of the AI can be configured/programmed:

1). Possible configuration/programming options of the AI corresponding to an experience(s).

2). Conditions that must meet for an experiential event to trigger. This can be discussed in terms of entry conditions for an event(s) to trigger and exit conditions for an event(s) to cease.

Possible configuration/programming options of the AI corresponding to an experience(s).

i). We can program the AI to make certain people have a levitation experience once in their whole life.

Therefore, we could expect to hear people making such claims.

ii). We could levitate a body and also make him/her see an object getting materialized once in their whole life. Therefore, we could expect to hear people make such claims.

iii). We could levitate a body, make him/her see an object getting materialized, an object getting dematerialized, make him/her see lights flickering, draining batteries, etc. once in their whole life. Therefore, we could expect to hear people make such claims.

So basically we could give any combination of these experiences and any number of such experiences to people around the world. This is because the capabilities of technology can be configured/programmed differently. These experiences can be given to people without showing the existence of an intelligence behind these experiences or we could induce voices to make a person see the existence of an intelligence behind the experience. Synchronicities themselves can be used to help people understand the involvement of an intelligence (this is why people claim that spirits are behind certain synchronicities).

iv). We could program the AI in such a way where a person can be made to believe that levitation can be achieved if they engage in certain practices.

(Therefore, in some cases we could expect to see people claim that they achieved certain powers by practicing various things.)

v). We could program AI to give spontaneous psychic powers.

(Therefore, we could expect to see people claim that they gained, for instance, an ability to levitate objects/their own body without any practice at all) vi). We could program non-biological intelligences to exhibit various psychic powers such as mind-reading, powers to levitate objects, materialize / dematerialize objects, etc. Such programming can be used to make people that these intelligences are coming from a distant planet. Apart from that people who possess this technology could use capabilities of the AI such as materialization/dematerialization, levitation, and teleportation, etc., to convince us that they are aliens.

(I saw many contactees ended up believing that certain people they met are aliens because of strange abilities that they were exhibiting. For instance, this is what Jack Webster ended his interview with George Van Tassel: "But he did tell us one thing, how to recognize visitors from outer space. If they ever come to you, and you're sitting in a room, and they snap their fingers three times and disappear, and when they reappear a few seconds later, then you'll know for sure that they are from outer space." – https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=wZbFsFWk__c

This particular power could attribute to teleportation technology. Therefore, George Van Tassel cannot come to the conclusion that he met an alien by having this experience.)

We know that systems can be configured/programmed by considering possible entry conditions for a particular event to occur and exit conditions for a particular event to cease. So the capabilities that I mentioned earlier can be configured in various ways to give different experiences to human beings:

i). We could levitate objects, make lights to flicker, and make objects to dematerialize (vanish) and objects to materialize, only when a particular individual come to a house and make these events cease when he/she leaves the house.

– People who believe in the existence of spirits were reporting such experiences quite often. However, you would notice that the same phenomena such as levitation of objects, flickering of lights, and materialization/dematerialization of objects are being reported by people who encounter UFOs/ETs) ii). We could make these activities occur by targeting a child and we can make these events cease when the child becomes a teen.

iii). We could make these events occur only when a person becomes stressed or based on various emotional statuses.

– This is because when we connect human brains to computers we could trigger certain events when certain conditions are met. Therefore, what I'm discussing here are possible conditions to trigger events such as materialization/dematerialization of objects, levitation experiences, disturbances to electric/electronic equipment, etc. In the literature on poltergeist, we could see people report such experiences according to their emotions/mental states. For instance:

"This ties in with much of the well-known literature on poltergeist cases where a teenager, frequently — but not necessarily — an unhappy or disturbed one, is a member of the household in which the poltergeist is being manifested. "

iv). We could make these events occur just after a UFO sighting or after an abduction experience. Therefore, the following experience can be explained:

""alien" abductees report profound synchronicities manifesting in their lives, battle poltergeist phenomena in their homes, and occasionally encounter loved ones during their brief sojourn to the Otherworld."

Source:

http://whitecrowbooks.com/features/page/in_for_a_penny_in_for_a_pound_moving_ufology_beyond_materialism_by_joshua_c

(Since the AI exhibits various capabilities apart from what I mentioned, if a person observed materialization/dematerialization and/or teleportation of an object after a UFO sighting or after an abduction experience, that person could even report—not a must—various other strange experiences as well depend on the way the AI is being programmed. Therefore, along with these experiences, one could even claim that he/she started experiencing synchronicities, saw objects getting levitated, lights started flickering, heard voices, saw visions, disturbances to electrical equipment/electricity and their dreams started predicting the future, etc.)

v). We could start these activities inside a home and when a particular person leaves the house to another place, we could make the events occur in that location as well.

(By programming differently, we could achieve this task. By doing so, we could make a person believe that spirits are following him/her) vi). We could give an ability to materialize, dematerialize or levitate their bodies and/or give various other psychic powers after a UFO/ET encounter (another possible entry point).

vii). We could intensify these activities on Earth during a particular period only and make these activities cease entirely without giving a clue as to what caused them. Similarly, we could give abilities such as levitation, object materialization/dematerialization abilities, etc., to human beings as in general during a particular time period and make these abilities disappear later.

We could see a logical reason for why saints were exhibiting an ability to levitate their bodies in the middle ages and the disappearance of this ability from people now. For instance:

"Catholic figures who purportedly levitated in recent centuries include St. Francis Of Assisi, St. John Joseph of the St. Ignatius Loyola, St. James of Illyricum, St.Dominic, St. Dunstan, St. Philip Benite, St. Cajetan, St.Albert of Sicily, St. Bernard Ptolomaei, St. Edmund, St.Seraphim de Serov, St. Teresa of Avila, St. Joseph of Cupertino, Bl. Mary of Jesus Crucified, St. Gemma Galgani, and St. Pio Of Pietrelcina. Many Of these levitations were reported by witnesses as occurring during prayer or communion, seemingly as by—products Of the ecstatic State."

Source: Mind-Matter Interaction: A Review of Historical Reports, Theory and Research By Pamela Rae Heath, M.D- (p.11)

Similarly, we could see a logical reason to explain why mediums were able to levitate their bodies in the 19th century quite often but not now. We could say that the reason behind the discussion about spiritualism/Spiritism is human experiences. According to Dr. Peeples:

"Though Spiritualists number millions upon millions in all enlightened countries — and though there are more or less Spiritualists in every church in the land, (unlessit be that little seven- by-nine side issue — the Seventh-day Second Adventists) — there are those who ask half sneeringly, "Who are these Spiritualists?" My brief reply is: They constitute the thoughtful brains of the world. I repeat, the brainiest people of the world today are straight out-and-out Spiritualists, or favorably inclined to Spiritualism."

Source: What Is Spiritualism, Who Are These Spiritualists And What Has Spiritualism Done For The World? by James Martin Peebles (p.12)

Now when we analyze the reported experiences, can we say suddenly so many human beings who are educated an intelligent started lying about their experiences? Since this hypothesis is not logical, it gives us an indication that their experiences such as levitation, materialization of matter and figures, voices they heard, etc. are true experiences. On the other hand, it's not complicated to understand if an object is levitated or not. Therefore, I see that people are not thinking logically about these unusual experiences, so they reject these experiences entirely.

These are some of the expected behavior if someone misuses such technology on a global scale since ancient times. We know that experiences such as levitation, materialization of objects/dematerialization of objects, flickering of lights, effects on electricity, etc., are closely associated with spirits, poltergeists, aliens, and UFOs/ETs. Further, we could see the same phenomena are being reported in haunted houses. When we try to figure the cause behind this, we could trace the cause to advanced technology.

Since I'm not able to give any proofs related to my conclusion about this advanced technology, let me discuss the possible explanations behind my experiences to show the theory that would fit the data:

1). My mind is affecting the thoughts of certain people out there and also my mind is affecting inanimate objects:

This assumption cannot logically explain for instance, why lights would flicker according to my thoughts and why I would experience disruptions to my phone calls when I talk about my experiences only. The same experience was reported by Dr. Karla Turna. According to her:

"Interference on our telephone calls and never when we were talking about recipes or the family or work but only when UFOs were the subject of the conversations" – https://youtu.be/cwDNE1rY5Dc?t=757

And then what can I possibly do to dematerialize the phone from my pocket and materialize the phone in my home? This is not a capability that I have. If this is a normal experience of a human being, then I would expect to see our civilization accepting the existence of the phenomenon. I don't see this either. Further, this hypothesis does not explain the unusual events that give me an impression of threats.

Therefore, overall, I don't find this explanation as logical, since I find so many experiences contradicting this line of thinking. And I expect people who have similar experiences to claim the same.

2). None of these experiences are caused by an external intelligence. It's that we are born to a world where nature gives such experiences to human beings.

This hypothesis cannot explain why my phone got dematerialized inside my pocket and materialized inside my house which was located a few kilometers away from where I was walking in a meaningful way. Besides, I cannot see nature can do anything to physical systems/matter where I can clearly see the involvement of an intelligence. Nature should not create synchronistic events to give me the impression that someone doesn't like my research activities either. Furthermore, the disturbance phenomenon that I report cannot be explained using this hypothesis.

3). The involvement of an intelligence.

– This is the only explanation that would logically explain my experiences. Here, we could discuss three main hypotheses to identify the intelligence behind these experiences:

i). Spirits are behind my life experiences:

If people who pass away possess any of the capabilities that I report, I expect to see our civilization understanding their existence and accepting these phenomena as their abilities. But this is not what I see in the world. We have seen how parents care for their children and how family members care for their loved ones. If we could communicate with people on Earth after our death this way, then our existence should not be a mystery. Apart from this, for many logical reasons, I cannot attribute any of these experiences to people who pass away. This is why experiences associated with spiritualism in the 19th century got rejected by the scientific community. However, none of these different beliefs solved the mystery.

(Since some of my experiences are identical to the experiences reported by people who believe that they communicate with spirits, I expect to see an advanced technology-based explanation behind their experiences and showing a connection to UFOs for obvious reasons)

ii) So many aliens are visiting the Earth, and aliens from many civilizations are interacting with me:

– Why these aliens from many civilizations thinking of disturbing phone calls when I talk about my experiences? Make lights flicker and teleport my phone to my house? It's not logical to assume that aliens who are coming from different planets interact with me this way. Therefore, this hypothesis can also be ignored.

When we filter out the hypotheses that cannot be used to explain my experiences, to figure out the truth behind this mystery, we have to take these two remaining hypotheses to consideration:

This is a work of an alien civilization (tracing this to a single party). They have managed to deploy a system to monitor us and to connect our brains to their computers. So, all my experiences should be able to trace to their technology.

A group of human beings that descends from a highly advanced ancient civilization is behind my experiences. They have managed to deploy a system to monitor us and to connect our brains to their computers. All my experiences can be traced to their technology.

Since the mystery behind my experiences resolves to a single party, this tells us that:

1). The cause behind the levitation experience can be traced to this party.
2). The dematerialization/materialization and teleportation experience can be traced to this party.
3). The cause behind synchronicities can be traced to this party.
4). The cause behind the disruption of my phone calls can be traced to this party.
5). The cause behind the flickering of lights according to my thoughts/intentions, can be traced to this party.
6). The cause behind the sudden drainage of batteries can be traced to this party.
7). The cause behind power outages can be traced to this party.
8). The cause behind the disturbances to electronic equipment can be traced to this party.
9). The cause behind dreams that predicted the future, thoughts that should not belong to me, the synchronicities associated with songs, and even unusual smells that I perceived can be traced to this party.

This explains from a logical standpoint why I'm facing threats. Further, it gives us a reason supporting my claim that "someone does not like my research activities." And the reason behind various disturbances that I report. Since the same experiences that I report can be seen in association with the phenomenon of spirits and the phenomenon of UFOs/ETs, this entire mystery surrounding the phenomenon of UFOs/ETs and the phenomenon of spirits can also be traced to a single party. Any other explanation will not be able to explain the data (Earlier I showed why other theories are failing).

Out of these two possible explanations, we can also see this mystery, instead of resolving to aliens, resolving to a group of human beings that lives among us in one of our countries. This I will explain by taking data. On the other hand, this conclusion tells us that there's an extremely advanced control system that exists on Earth and our brains are connected to this. This also explains why spirits can share factually correct information with mediums and also this explains the connection between spirits and the phenomenon of UFOs/ETs from a logical standpoint. Any other theory would fail(Earlier I showed why other theories are failing).

Here's how we can identify if my experience and the experiences of people who communicate with spirits and aliens is the same:

Let's say a person claims that his/her body also levitated once. However, the problem here is that we are not able to see the connection between my levitation experience and the levitation experience of the individual. By considering such experiences we are not able to identify if there's a common cause behind human experiences. Now, let's say we come across a case where a person claims that my body levitated, I saw an object getting dematerialized, I saw objects getting materialized, I also faced an experience where I could identify as teleportation (apart from dematerialization of an object, one could also see a displacement when the same object getting materialized), I also faced unusual synchronicities and lights also started flickering. When we come across cases as such we could establish the connection since my experience can be traced to an advanced technology/AI that exhibits all these capabilities. Just like a signature is unique to a person, these capabilities of the advanced technology/ AI can be used to uniquely identify this technology / AI.

Now when we analyze the data in the literature on spiritualism/spirits, we could see people were reporting all the experiences that I report (we could see UFO/ET contactees are also reporting the same). For instance, people reportedly have seen objects being levitated, objects getting materialized/dematerialized and teleported. Further, mediums report experiences such as sudden draining of batteries, synchronicities in association with songs, disturbances to electricity/electric equipment and flickering of lights, etc., Mediums who communicate with spirits also report that the intelligence they communicate with, have the ability to induce thoughts to them and they use such experiences (perception of thoughts) as a form of communication modality. Although people attribute these experiences to spirits, my experiences can be traced to an extremely advanced technology / AI; and these experiences can be identified as the capabilities of this advanced technology/AI.

(Since all our current theories with regard to spirits show contradictions, and since no one has ever considered artificial intelligence as a hypothesis to understand the mystery surrounding spirits and their apparent connection to the phenomenon of UFOs, I suggest researchers reanalyze the phenomenon of spirits by considering this hypothesis to determine whether we could see a meaningful correlation between spirits and the phenomenon of UFOs. We know that any good hypothesis would not only help us to generalize well but it could even predict the outcome of un-analyzed data)

If my conclusions are correct, we could expect to see (below statements can be used to test the validity of the claim):

i). Mediums/researchers confirming the existence of an external intelligence (which is a must).

ii). Skeptics/researchers finding issues with the identity of the intelligences that claim to be spirits.

iii). People who believe that they communicate with spirits claiming that the intelligence they communicate with provides information related to the souls of the dead that are factually correct.

(This is because I was able to come to the conclusion that this intelligence is AI, and AI decode neural activities of human brains in real-time, therefore, this intelligence must be able to share factual information about any person on Earth. Because of this, I expect to see mediums making this claim) iv). We will not be able to explain data using hypotheses such as lying and cold reading.

(Even children have the same experiences that adult mediums are having, therefore, lying and cold reading cannot be used to explain the phenomenon. For instance, see https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=wnNf5ny8ddI

Matt Fraser: "Growing up, I knew that same feeling. When I was around the age of 3 or 4, at night I would yell and scream in my bedroom, petrified because I would see and hear spirits. I was afraid to go to sleep at night because I knew that they would appear and try to talk to me. I just wanted to be normal." – https://meetmattfraser.com/tag/hollywood-medium/

v). People who meet mediums claiming that the information provided by mediums is factually correct.

vi). People who meet mediums claiming that it's impossible for mediums to know certain information that they shared with them.

(If the cause behind the phenomenon of spirits is artificial intelligence, this intelligence can use various methods to share truthful information with mediums. To share information, the AI can be programmed to give visions to people, sensations to people, change feelings of mediums and even engage in telepathic conversations with them. Therefore, we could expect to see mediums reporting such experiences) vii). The intelligence giving statements that are contradictory to mediums.

(If advanced technology is behind the phenomenon of spirits, such experiences can be expected) viii). We could expect to see brain scans showing anomalies in support of mediums claim about their interaction with the intelligences.

(If mediums claim that the spirit shared factual information, for example, through visions, brain scans must support their claim. This is a must since for the AI to give a vision to a medium, the AI must stimulate the brain. Dr. Schwartz's experiment tells us that this is happening. See https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=F0w35EbIzFE ix). We could expect to see mediums claiming that they communicate with an intelligence that is capable of knowing their thoughts and replying to their thoughts in a telepathic manner.

Basically, think about a situation where someone uses artificial intelligence to convince the existence of souls of the dead. If so, what kind of controversies that we can expect to see in the world? What kind of experiences people should report in their interaction with the AI? What are the limitations of this interaction? If the intelligence behind the souls of the dead is AI, we will be able to find satisfactory answers to such questions.

To identify if this advanced technology is indeed behind the phenomenon of spirits, I analyzed various data related to spirits, and I could say that the conclusion that I arrived at does not contradict the data associated with spirits.

What you find below are claims made by researchers. Many researchers and even mediums were testifying the existence of an independent intelligence behind the phenomenon of spirits.

This is what Sir Conan Doyle had to say:

"The most marked of these results was the alteration in the weight of objects, which was afterwards so completely confirmed by Dr. Crawford working with the Goligher circle, and also in the course of the Margery investigation at Boston. Heavy objects could be made light, and light ones heavy, by the action of some unseen force which appeared to be under the influence of an independent intelligence. The checks by which all possible fraud was eliminated are very fully set out in the record of the experiments, and must convince any unprejudiced reader. Dr. Huggins, the well-known authority on the spectroscope, and Serjeant Cox, the eminent lawyer, together with several other spectators, witnessed the experiments. As already recorded, however, Crookes found it impossible to get some of the official heads of science to give the matter one hour of their attention." – People were reporting time and time that the intelligence behind the phenomenon of spirits is an external intelligence.

Source: The History of Spiritualism By ARTHUR CONAN DOYLE, M.D,. LL.D (p.252)

We can also see people validating the experiences:

PROFESSOR CHALLIS, F. R. S States:

"PROFESSOR CHALLIS, F. R. S., the late Plumerian Professor of Astronomy at Cambridge, stated his opinion in a letter to the "Clerical Journal," of June, 1862, as follows: 'I have been unable to resist the large amount of testimony to such facts, which has come from many independent sources, and from a vast number of witnesses. … In short, the testimony has been so abundant and consentaneous, that either the facts must be admitted to be such as are reported, or the possibility of certifying facts by human testimony must be given up."

Source: What Is Spiritualism, Who Are These Spiritualists And What Has Spiritualism Done For The World? by James Martin Peebles (p.16)

In other words, researchers and even mediums were testifying for the existence of phenomenon such as levitation, materialization of objects and figures, dematerialization of objects and figures, an intelligence understanding thoughts, replying to their thoughts (mediums will confirm this), an intelligence sharing factually correct information about deceased people, apparitional experiences, hearing voice of an intelligence, seeing visions, automatic writing/drawing/painting/speaking and spirit possession, etc.

Further, we could see mediums report phenomena such as flickering of lights, sudden draining of batteries, spirits inducing thoughts, and spirits using songs as a form of communication modality.

(These four experiences are unique experiences that I also faced)

We could even see skeptical thinkers raising questions about the true identity of these intelligences claim to be spirits:

"The question of identity is still the bitter cross of -psychical research, and Sir A. Conan Doyle must be aware of it. It is his "will to believe" which causes him to pass over it so lightly. It is wonderful how this "will to believe" blinds the mind and perverts the judgment."

"But apart from the question as to the real nature of these spirits, around which a fierce controversy will beyond doubt be turning shortly, I maintain that no departed human being who has preserved his moral and intellectual integrity in the other world would adopt means so disastrous to the living as modern mediumship is known to be — purely for the purpose of conveying the most trivial messages to surviving friends."

Source: The facts and fallacies of modern spiritism by Raupert, J. Godfrey

Apart from these obvious signs, when we deeply analyze data, for instance, data related to automatic writing experiences, we can see the parameters of an application (AI) behind the experience.

To show you that automatic writing shows a connection to the phenomenon of UFOs (advanced technology), let me take this case:

""For example, her daughter Becky (who was involved in that encounter) described how she woke up in 1964 to see a glowing yellow—orange ball hovering outside her bed room window and directing a beam of light at her. Shortly after this, Becky began to produce pages filled with strange symbols by automatic writing. Automatic writing is awell—known psychic phenomenon, and it also shows up in the stories of many UFO witnesses.””

Source; Parallels: Ancient Insights Into Modern UFO Phenomena by Richard L. Thompson

Further, if AI controls the hands of automatic writers, we could expect to see people reporting unique internal experiences as well. These experiences will also help us to differentiate internal experiences associated with normal writing and automatic writing. Here is what researchers have to say:

“Some automatic writers reported that thoughts corresponding to the written words just ‘‘ surged apparently from now here without logical associative relation into the mind ’’. Other writers stated that they felt little or no control over their hand movements and what the hand was writing–‘‘ my arm was lifted into the air ’’(Koutstaal,1992). Furthermore, practitioners of automatic writing have reported full awareness during the communication period or alternatively were not aware of any messages communicated (Taves, 2006). Phenomenological accounts, therefore, suggest that automatic writing may involve a loss or reduction of the control and ownership of thoughts, or hand movement, either with or without a narrowing of awareness.”

Here is an experience where we can clearly see the existence of an external intelligence:

“Let me, here, give two or three instances of the presence of intelligent beings not of this world. We shall come, presently, to speak of cases which are more to the point Last sabbath, I was in Taunton. Mrs. Willard Tripp told me that, – last summer, I think it was, — she made a mental request that a certain gentleman should visit there upon a certain Friday. H. T. Fairfield was intending to stop in Taunton on the sabbath. It was his intention to go there on Saturday. He was in his home at Greenwich. There was company at the house of Mrs. Tripp, in Taunton, and they desired to see him. She mentally requested a spirit-friend to go and tell him to come on Friday. He solemnly avers, that, while engaged in his business, a- voice came to his interior mind “Go to Taunton tomorrow: you are wanted”. His mother said, “Why not wait till Saturday? They have sent for me; he replied, a spirit has sent for me to go.” He did go; and when he met Mrs. Tripp, at the door, she asked why he came and he answered “You sent for me.””

Source: Great discussion of modern spiritualism, between Prof. J. Stanley Grimes and Leo Miller, Esq. : at the Melodeon, Boston, every evening during the second week in March 1860 By James Stanley Grimes , Leo Miller (p.25)

Possible explanations:

i). H. T Fairfield experienced an auditory hallucination:

We could see Mrs. Tripp verifying her own experiment by asking a question from H. T. Fairfield. Therefore, this hypothesis cannot be used to explain the reported experience in a meaningful way.

ii). Mrs. Tripp was able to induce a voice in H. T Fairfield's mind using some form of telepathy:

If this has taken place then H. T. Fairfield must not hear the message as "Go to Taunton tomorrow: you are wanted". Therefore, telepathy cannot explain the reported incident.

iii). Mental illness cannot be used to explain the reported experience in a meaningful way.

iv). An external independent intelligence knew the mental request. Processed the request to understand the meaning. Understood to whom the message must be delivered and delivered the message in a meaningful way by preserving the meaning:

Notice that H.T. Fairfield did not hear the mental request of Mrs. Tripp, but a meaningful message as if a middle party delivered the message. This is the only hypothesis that can be used to explain the experience in a meaningful way. This data contradicts all the other theories.

Therefore, when we analyze cases like this, the existence of an external intelligence that claims to be the souls of the dead is apparent. This can be identified as the reason why people become mediums. This also explains why mediums are trying to convince us of their existence.

If spirits are independent intelligences, then this mystery resolves to either:

i). That these intelligences are indeed souls of the dead.

This hypothesis cannot be used to explain the data in a meaningful way. This can be identified as the reason for the scientific community had to reject.

ii). An intelligence that has a natural mind and smarter than a human being were deceiving us without using technology.

– Since this hypothesis tells us that this intelligence is not the souls of the dead, then that means someone deceiving us. However, this hypothesis also cannot be used to explain the data related to spirits in a meaningful way since experiences such as synchronicities are involved. Further, this hypothesis can't be used to understand the connection between spirits and the phenomenon of UFOs.

iii). An intelligence (a natural intelligence/human beings) uses artificial intelligence (advanced technology) to deceive us.

This third hypothesis is the only meaningful hypothesis that can be used to explain these experiences because of the involvement of advanced technology. This hypothesis explains the cause behind experiences such as levitation (AI can communicate with the relevant interface to control the levitation of a remote object), teleportation (AI can communicate with relevant interfaces to teleport objects and human beings), and automatic writing (AI can communicate with neural interfaces to control neural circuits and read from circuits. Here we can also explain application-specific parameters such as rapid writing, writing backward, mirror writing, etc, of the experience). And also this hypothesis can explain why this intelligence shows a connection to the UFO phenomenon and the connection between UFO sightings and poltergeist attacks (AI can attack a person or confuse a person because of its capabilities). Apart from that, we can even explain the channeling phenomenon (Artificial personalities. AI can control neural circuits of the medium in such a way where the medium's body would reflect a secondary personality), spirit materialization phenomenon (AI can communicate with the teleportation interface to materialize a non-biological intelligence in a remote location that has a body clone and a mental clone of a deceased person or even an intelligence that we call Grey aliens, Bigfoot, etc.,) and even various other mental experiences that mediums report.

Therefore, when we analyze the data from a logical perspective, we could pinpoint the cause to advanced technology. This is the conclusion that I arrived at by analyzing my own experience.

Evidence in support of the conclusion that we are being monitored:

Time and time again the intelligences claim to be spirits were sharing life experiences of people who are passed away to their family members through mediums. People were also reporting that the information these mediums shared with them cannot be known to them. If the cause behind the phenomenon of spirits is artificial intelligence, what does it mean?

Because of human experiences with spirits, we know that spirits share factual information related to people who are passed away. If the intelligence behind spirits is artificial intelligence, we can actually find evidence supporting the conclusion that we are being monitored because of the information they share with us.

(Even mediums claim that spirits share information that is unknown to them. Which is again something we could expect to hear from mediums if an independent intelligence communicate with them)

Mediums claim that these so-called spirits reply to their thoughts (spirits are having a telepathic conversation with mediums). For spirits to reply to thoughts, spirits must use a mechanism to decode thoughts in real-time. Therefore, these experiences also give us hints relating to this monitoring.

Once we managed to come to the conclusion that artificial intelligence is behind the phenomenon of spirits, we could understand that the cause behind the phenomenon of poltergeists is artificial intelligence by analyzing cases such as the below:

"Here we have a well-documented case of poltergeist phenomena developing into more diverse and sophisticated psychic powers. Yet we still lack an explanation for the phenomena. How do we account for the drawings in so many styles, for the writing in Latin and Arabic? Yet we can make at least one statement with reasonable confidence: if poltergeists are manifestations of the unconscious, then Matthew's powers emanate from the depths of his own mind. He has said as much in a letter to me: "I feel that these powers are basically of a poltergeist nature albeit on a more controlled level. " "

Source: The Geller Phenomenon by Colin Wilson – (p.68)

Since the cause behind the poltergeist phenomenon is artificial intelligence, we could find a logical answer to the question raised by Scott Rogo:

"The real nature of the UFO Phenomenon may be infinitely more complex. For instance, if Mrs. Hill's abductors were denizens of some distant planet, why has she suffered psychic attacks and poltergeist manifestations ever since? These are phenomena produced by the hidden recesses of the mind, not by creatures from another world. The extraterrestrial hypothesis cannot explain this facet of the abduction syndrome."

Source: Alien abductions: True cases of UFO kidnappings By D. Scott Rogo (p.8)

In my write-up, I showed that almost all the phenomena associated with spirits, also associate with UFO/ET phenomenon. This is including commonly reported experiences by mediums such as the one involve lyrics of songs:

"66(BD-16): "The most strange aspect of the experience was the almost constant use of song lyrics to communicate, and their ability to do so rapidly, seamlessly and with little effort. It seemed to be their preferred mode of communication." On a couple of occasions, he received overwhelming telepathic communications and could hear a voice sounding somewhat tinny and communicating various things to him, such as what he was thinking, completely disconcerting and very uncomfortable"

Source: Hernandez, Reinerio. Beyond UFOs: The science of consciousness and contact with non-human intelligence Vol 1 – (p. 228)

Although many UFO researchers don't think this data has any value to resolve these mysteries, these experiences give us many insights to resolve the mystery. A researcher would find that there are only a few possibilities for song selections on radio stations:

i). A song could be played according to a request.

Ii). A particular song can be chosen by the radio presenter.

Iii). The song was chosen from a playlist (predefined).

Iv). An algorithm could select a song randomly.

(Thoughts of a person who believes that he/she communicate with aliens/spirits cannot affect these applications in such a way where the application would end up playing the right song, so the individual could see the correlation to his/her thought. Therefore, we must think of some external mechanism to make sense of the 3rd and 4th hypotheses specifically)

What this means is that these so-called spirits and aliens either hack into computer systems to choose a song by targeting an individual in such a way where the individual would see lyrics of the song (the message that spirits and aliens are trying to convey) showing a correlation to his/her thoughts/actions and/or these so-called spirits and aliens inducing thoughts to a radio presenter/listener in order to affect the song selection process.

You could break down this conclusion process this way:

A person thinking of something (thoughts) – > Observing a song that is being played on the radio showing correlation to these thoughts.

(These events would occur in such a way where the individual could see the connection between this experience and his/her ongoing communication with spirits/aliens)

Therefore, what see here is a connection between an external intelligence, thoughts of people, and/or computer systems. Thoughts are being affected means, neural activities of human brains are being affected.

A must-ask question: Why would an alien coming from another planet or who stays somewhere in the universe decode thoughts in real-time but to respond to thoughts the alien access a remote computer system or induce thought to a radio presenter or some other individual, so the alien can alter the song selection process to communicate? For obvious reasons, the alien hypothesis would subject to criticism here. However, we cannot deny the phenomenon. People who communicate with aliens and spirits both report the same as if there's a common cause.

Here are the current conclusions of what these phenomena are:

1. A group of people claims that spirits are behind the phenomenon and they use songs as a communication modality.

If souls of the dead exist in the way we believe and if they have all the capabilities mediums were reporting, by now the existence of spirits and their interaction with us should be a well-known truth in our society, but it's not. Therefore, this is not a logical hypothesis.

2. Another group of people claims that aliens are behind the phenomenon and aliens use songs as a communication modality.

If aliens are behind this experience then that means aliens use lyrics of songs to communicate with mediums around the world, apart from contactees. This hypothesis also tells us that aliens communicate with mediums on a daily basis by claiming themselves as souls of the dead. Therefore, this hypothesis also cannot be used to explain the phenomenon in a meaningful way. It's highly controversial.

3. Some skeptics could attribute the phenomenon to coincidences.

People who have this experience will disagree. This hypothesis cannot be used to explain why this phenomenon shows a connection to voices that mediums hear and their various other unusual experiences

4. I had the same experience, however, my analysis of the phenomenon helped me to conclude that an AI is behind the experience.

When you analyze these claims you would find that the 4th hypothesis is the only hypothesis that can be used to explain the experiences of people. This hypothesis can also explain the connection between spirits and aliens and various other controversies surrounding these experiences.

To induce thoughts to radio presenters in order to alter the song selection process, this highly advanced technology must exhibit the thought induction capability. In fact, they have demonstrated this ability many times and they have given us enough proof in support of this conclusion. For instance:

i). "Pledians would ring 10 short rings to let him know what he's thinking were them and not his own thoughts. Early on he wasn't clearly able to distinguish between telepathic transmission and his own thoughts"

Source: https://youtu.be/2cgSYBZpPC0?t=7809

Ii). "Four times I have received a telepathic 'message' concerning UFOs. Not like a sound or voice. It was a sequence of thoughts somehow distinguishable from my own.

Source: UFOs: Psychic Solution By Jacques Vallee – (p.194)

My own experiences indicated that they have developed an application to induce thoughts (another capability of the AI) to people. Furthermore, I see that this application has been further developed to induce thoughts to a radio presenter /a listener so the application can alter the song selection process in response to a thought of an individual. Since various evidence indicates that human brains are connected to computers, this can be achieved. This also explains why people who communicate with aliens and spirits have the same experience.

Overall, what this means is that on certain occasions people behind this crime could use this method as a form of communication modality, non-biological intelligences could use this method as a form of communication (for instance, you meet a non-biological intelligence today and from tomorrow onwards you start experiencing this phenomenon) or AI itself could use this method as a form of communication (for instance, you communicate with intelligences claim to be aliens/spirits using automatic writing. And this interaction triggers these experiences).

How these conclusions solve mysteries surrounding experiences reported by people (we could further test if my conclusions are right by analyzing data related to human experiences):

1). Reported Experience: Kevin Day, after the UFO encounter (tic-tac), experiences a phenomenon where when he thinks about something, that thing would end up materializing to an extent that he can notice. For example, Kevin claims that he once wanted to have ice cream, and the very next day one of his friends brought ice cream with him.

Source: http://radiomisterioso.com/audio/Kevin_Day_12_4_19.mp3

Explanation:

The experience looks mind-boggling. But let's try to figure out what's happening here:

Let's say his friends' name is Dave. For Dave to meet Kevin, thoughts must come to his mind. Along with this thought, in the most unexpected way, we could see Dave was thinking about buying Ice Cream as well. How ice cream came to his mind? Is it because Dave exhibits an ability to know the thoughts of Kevin or Kevin can influence thoughts that come to Dave's mind? Or is it that something external was involved in making the incident take place? And most importantly, why people claim of having such experiences after UFO sightings, and what UFOs have to do with such experiences?

What could be happening here?

Earlier we discussed a scenario where unique thoughts are coming to a radio presenter, so the radio presenter selects a unique song; which is the action driven by those unique thoughts. In Kevin's case, buying ice cream can be identified as the action driven by unique thoughts that have come to his friend's mind.

So basically, we could see unique thoughts making a person selects a song and unique thoughts making a person buy ice cream. If we generalized this, we could see people having/perceiving unique thoughts and ending up performing unique actions. Meaning we are looking at the same phenomenon. It just that actions are different.

From the experiencer's point of view, these are not coincidences (I agree with them since I had similar experiences). If a person could understand that the intelligence behind the phenomenon of spirits is artificial intelligence and this intelligence uses songs as a form of communication modality and understands the mechanism behind the experience, these experiences would also make sense.

2). Reported Experience:

"(BM-3) "I lost stuff many times and have asked for it to be returned and this has been done. Suddenly it is on my table in front of my eyes where it was not there a few seconds before."" –

Explanation: Since AI monitors human beings and exhibits an ability to materialize/dematerialize objects/matter, the AI can be programmed to respond to human thoughts. Therefore, we could expect to see people reporting such experiences. In fact, when we analyze this incidence, it indicates that the AI has made a decision to materialize what was dematerialized by the AI earlier by detecting the thoughts of the individual. If we could induce a voice claiming to be a spirit/alien along with this experience, he/she can be made to believe in spirits/aliens.

"(BR-1) PK phenomena occurred at times when highly emotional, causing pictures to fly off the wall, glass to break with witnesses present. "I recently lost my high school graduation ring and couldn't find it. Days later, taking a shower, thought it strange if my ring suddenly might appear. That moment I heard a clink on the shower floor and looked down and there it was."" – This example also shows that there's a connection between thoughts of a person and materialization objects. And in other cases, we could see the involvement of an intelligence behind this materialization/dematerialization of objects.

3). Experiences reported by Uri Geller and Dr. Puharich can also be explained:

When we analyze Dr. Puharich's experience with Uri Geller, we could see that both of them have seen materialization and dematerialization of matter many times along with other experiences such as levitation. Their story almost unbelievable to people due to the sheer number of such experiences. Clearly, they were communicating with an intelligence (and they also heard robotic voices). Therefore, an intelligence associate with materialization/dematerialization experiences is apparent here as well. Which is something I expect to see because of the conclusions that I arrived at. Here is a reported experience by Dr. Puharich:

"As the voice ended, the tape cassette vanished immediately from inside the tape recorder. I sat down to write the above words from memory, and I believe that every word is accurate. As I finished these notes, a large metal cabinet three feet high with nine file drawers vanished from alongside of my desk. I called this cabinet my bric-a-brac drawers, because it contained hundreds of little objects that I treasure: jewelry, coins, stamps, special documents, awards, mementos, and leather goods such as billfolds."– Notice the items that were inside the cabinet. Everything was dematerialized in front of his own eyes.

"Everything that was personal or precious was there. So its disappearance was a loss, but I was pleased at this countersignature of intelligence and power. We searched the house to see if it was on the premises. The last place I looked was in my second-floor bedroom, and there it was, neatly placed alongside my bedside bookshelves. I searched it. Everything had survived the transformation without obvious change."

We can even find occasions where Dr. Puharich's thoughts were getting decoded in real-time by the intelligence that communicated with them. Throughout their experiences, signs of monitoring are also an apparent parameter.

4). Reported Experiences:

i). "St. Teresa was reportedly embarrassed that she was unable to stay on the ground during her prayers, and tried to hide what was occurring. Despite this, she is among the few who wrote a first-hand account of her experiences. St. Teresa described herself as powerless over the events and unable to resist. She felt as if a force beneath her was lifting her up"

Ii). "Finally, there is the matter of the paranormal phenomena that now take place around them. Coincidences of a telepathic nature are frequently reported, and the doctor has even, on at least one occasion, experienced levitation without being able to control it. Clocks and electrical circuits have been affected, apparently without cause. Such phenomena are not unprecedented. Cases of uncontrolled levitation or gravity effects have been reported in connection with UFOs. In one case, which took place in 1954 in the French countryside, a man who was coming back from the fields with his horse had to let go of the bridle as the animal was lifted several feet into the air – a dark, circular object was flying fast over the trail they were following."

Source: Dimensions: A Casebook of Alien Contact by Jacques Vallee

Explanation: When an external intelligence behind human levitation experiences (AI), we could expect to hear people claim that their body levitated against their will and/or their powers cannot be controlled at times. If human beings had any of these powers, then even today we should be able to see these powers. However, we don't see this. Levitation is a commonly reported experience in the literature on UFOs as well.

5). Reported Experience: “But he did tell us one thing, how to recognize visitors from outer space. If they ever come to you, and you’re sitting in a room, and they snap their fingers three times and disappear, and when they reappear a few seconds later, then you’ll know for sure that they are from outer space. Thank you, and good night.”

Explanation: Since we see the existence of teleportation technology, people who possess this technology could convince us that they are aliens by teleporting themselves or they could configure this ability with a non-biological intelligence and make them exhibit this ability to convince us that they are coming from another planet.

6). Reported Experience:

Threats, unusual sicknesses, strange deaths.

“Almost every day since I started my UFO investigations I have suffered strange happenings, sickness, complete lack of privacy, pain, torture to my animals, accidents to my family members, loss of property, threats, and almost every other kind of punishment you could wish upon your worst enemy.”

Source: BARBARA: The Story of a UFO Investigator – (p.101)

“At about 4 a.m., I woke to a voice saying, “You have been infected with cancer.” The words were put into my brain through thought projection. “There is no hope for you. The program has already been installed. Cancer will kill you.” The wordless projection felt human rather than alien. It was much too blunt to have come from alien sources. Too clumsy really to have come from ordinary human sources, I realized I must be hearing from a shadow military group. I went wild with fear.”

Source: BARBARA: The Story of a UFO Investigator

Explanation: From the experiences that I faced, I could identify the cause behind these experiences to the same technology; these are capabilities of this advanced technology. Let me share some of the experiences that I faced in support of this claim:

Conclusions:

When we analyze the mystery surrounding the phenomenon of spirits/poltergeist, this resolves to advanced technology. Since people who communicate with the intelligences believed to be spirits and aliens have identical experiences, such as materialization of objects, dematerialization of objects, teleportation of objects, levitation, sychronicities, disturbances to electrical equipment, visions and automatic writing, so on and so forth, we are able to trace this technology to the technology behind the phenomenon of UFOs/ETs. Furthermore, we can identify these phenomena as capabilities of artificial intelligence of this highly advanced technology.

Since all the phenomena that I report above are capabilities of a technology that is advanced and since this can be traced to a single party, we could also say that this party used this highly advanced technology to convince us that aliens from so many different planets are visiting us. In other words, we can see they have been deceiving us on a scale beyond belief. Clifford Stone claims that they have managed to catalog 57 different species.

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=KqX8wCBprj0 : Clifford Stone – National Press Club – May 9, 2001- Question and Answer

Since our conclusions are based on what we have cataloged, this tells us to what extent they have been deceiving us.

We also know that the reported experiences associated with Abrahamic religions and the experiences associated with UFOs/ETs and spirits are the same. For instance, people were reporting experiences such as materialization of food, levitation, teleportation, visions, automatic writing, intelligently controlled lights, etc.

However, since we could identify that highly advanced technology is behind all these phenomena, we can say that this same party has managed to establish Abrahamic religions on Earth. In other words, we can see that this party has established Islam in the 7th century, then 700+ years prior to this event, this technology was used to establish Christianity and prior to this the same technology was used to establish Judaism.

From a logical standpoint, this tells us that someone who possesses this highly advanced technology is living on Earth in one of our countries. Therefore, the mystery surrounding the phenomenon of UFOs resolves to a group of human beings that must descend from an ancient highly advanced civilization.

Once we arrive at this conclusion, we cannot simply ignore the story of Atlantis as a myth. This tells us that we are not admiring the work of critical thinkers like Graham Hancock because of our beliefs. However, his claims are coming true before our very eyes.

If we are not open-minded when looking for answers to these mysteries, I see that we are letting these people exploit us even further. Since we could trace this highly advanced technology to a single party, there must be an end-times scenario (I predict that the major events would unfold within the next 7 to 8 years), cause then only these people can stay ahead of technology-wise. Therefore, I expect to see these people who possess this technology working hard to materialize the end-times scenario with some pre-planned events. Due to this reason, I see that these so-called aliens must show an interest in end-time events. This is what Dr. I. D. E.

Thomas was saying:

"Some have difficulty in accepting the fact that these space beings are malevolent because some of the predictions they make parallel biblical prophecies. They have been known to quote from the Bible and to have shown remarkable interest in scriptural references to the last days. Armageddon is number one on their priority list."

Source: The Omega Conspiracy: Satan's Last Assault on God's Kingdom by Dr. I. D. E. Thomas

If one could understand the cause behind the phenomenon of spirits, that person would quickly understand everything that I'm stating here. And that's because the same experiences can be seen in the literature on spirits, aliens, and Abrahamic religions.

The issue related to human teleportation:

(We cannot dismiss the existence of this technology due to the high number of reported human teleportation experiences)

Just by materializing the exact copy of a human body, we will not be able to successfully teleport a human being. Instead, we will end up destroying life in the dematerialization process itself. However, because of the high number of reported human teleportation experiences, I see that they have managed to find a mechanism to teleport human beings. How they are doing this is a mystery.

But I'll try to answer this way. We know that mind-matter interaction is taking place in some way. For instance, If I say something in front of you, I know that I can make your mind perceive what I say. That's matter interacting with the mind (matter-mind interaction). But let's say you imagine playing tennis. That thought will activate particular neural circuits in your brain. That's mind interacting with matter (mind-matter interaction—the activity was initiated by the mind). Therefore, we will have to find a mechanism to preserve this process. Then we also know that even if we remove various parts of the human brain, the mind is still there. So is it that the mind interacts with some unique particles in the brain? If so, can we dematerialize the entire body and find a mechanism to transmit those particles at a high speed (at the speed of light) to the location where the body needs to be materialized (such a method will help us overcome G-force related issues)? Here for the materialization of the body, we could use teleportation principles. If we could find such a mechanism, we should be able to teleport by preserving the mind. So I think it could be a mix of teleportation (the entire body) and some other form of transportation (to transport the mind). If we could achieve this, then I think we will be able to preserve the mind and our memories as well yet travel at extremely high speed around the world. By the way, since we have very little understanding of mind-matter interaction, I'm not able to discuss the possibilities in a better way than this.

Is it possible to destroy evidence from the face of the Earth?

According to some estimates a 70 kg adult human body roughly has around 7^27 atoms (https://www.thoughtco.com/how-many-atoms-are-in-human-body-603872). People who had these teleportation experiences claim that in a blink of an eye they have been relocated to another location. If so, we can say that 7^27 atoms have been dematerialized and the same number of atoms have been materialized in another location. Since we are referring to a technology that is highly advanced—when we discuss teleportation—we must talk about this in terms of system capacity. So, how many human bodies they will be able to teleport in a second from one place to another place (Instead of human bodies, we could imagine an object that has the same number of atoms as a human body to make sense of this)? Let's assume that the capacity of the system is 100 human beings per second, then that means, the system is capable of dematerializing 7^29 atoms in a second. This means the system is capable of dematerializing 6.048 X 10 ^34 per day (7^29X60X60X24).

According to some records number of atoms on Earth is about 10^50. The volume of Earth is about 1.083 X 10^12. This means, in a cubic kilometer the Earth could have roughly around 9.233 x 10^37 atoms (10^50/1.083 X 10^12).

(If I'm missing some important points here do let me know, so we could reanalyze this by considering the issues that you point out. But anyway, I just wanted to point out the capability of a teleportation technology if the technology could teleport an object that has the same number of atoms as of a human body)

If the technology is capable of dematerializing 6.048 X 10 ^34 atoms per day then to dematerialize 9.233 X 10^37 atoms, the system would take 1526.7 days (9.233 X 10^37 / 6.048 X 10 ^34). In other words, the system would take roughly around 4 to 5 years to dematerialize 1 cubic kilometer of Earth if the system can dematerialize 100 human bodies per second. This gives us a rough idea about the capabilities of such a system. What can we say if this kind of system evolves for 5000 years? 10000 Years? It's hard for us to imagine.

Rapture:

Some Christians believe that at the time of the rapture 200 million people would vanish.

"What If 200 Million People Go Missing on Saturday?" –https://www.livescience.com/14251-200-million-rapture-12.html

If this happens (regardless of the date), this event will confirm the existence of this technology. Let's say the technology indeed capable of teleporting 200 million people at any given time, then that means, this technology can dematerialize 1 cubic kilometer of Earth in less than 82 days.

(I see this event as a holocaust. This deceptive event will make Christian people believe that their loved ones went to heaven)

The issue related to clearing of remnants:

Today we use technologies to find defects in the material at the atomic level and also to show three-dimensional maps of these atoms. For instance:

In the world of the very tiny, perfection is rare: virtually all materials have defects on the atomic level. These imperfections — missing atoms, atoms of one type swapped for another, and misaligned atoms — can uniquely determine a material's properties and function. Now, UCLA physicists and collaborators have mapped the coordinates of more than 23,000 individual atoms in a tiny iron-platinum nanoparticle to reveal the material's defects.

The results demonstrate that the positions of tens of thousands of atoms can be precisely identified and then fed into quantum mechanics calculations to correlate imperfections and defects with material properties at the single-atom level. This research will be published Feb 2. in the journal Nature.

"Physicists determine 3-D positions of individual atoms for the first time" – https://www.sciencedaily.com/releases/2015/09/150921182111.htm

Although these methods cannot be used, the technology behind the phenomenon of UFOs should be able to show 3-dimensional maps of remnants (even to the atomic scale) inside a mine. This is because when we analyze the reported teleportation experiences, we can see people report that objects that were inside their houses were subjecting to dematerialization and materialization. For instance:

"As the voice ended, the tape cassette vanished immediately from inside the tape recorder. I sat down to write the above words from memory, and I believe that every word is accurate. As I finished these notes, a large metal cabinet three feet high with nine file drawers vanished from alongside of my desk."

Source: Uri: A Journal of the Mystery of Uri Geller By Andrija Puharich (p.103/109)

Notice that although they were inside a building/house, and although the tape was inside the recorder, this technology was capable of dematerializing the cassette. And only the cassette. If they were able to dematerialize the cassette, they should also have the potential to dematerialize an atom or a couple of atoms from the cassette.

Therefore, when we look at this problem from various angles, I see that finding remnants, 3-dimensional mapping of remnants if needed, and even dematerializing widespread remnants, etc., should not be a problem.

However, they will subject to time constraints but then this can be addressed by increasing the system capacity (they could still find constraints here, however, we are not able to address all that since our technology is inferior). Overall, I don't see this task as an impossible task. If they find time constraints, they could bring issues to Earth to delay our technological evolution, so a civilization like ours would never know. Apart from dematerialization, to destroy evidence, this technology should be able to create fires, storms, and other methods to destroy evidence. Therefore, I don't see destroying evidence as an issue for the technology behind the phenomenon of UFOs. However, without advanced technology, then I agree, it's an impossible task for humans.

After all, we human beings are discussing subjects like the simulation of reality to understand the world and even to understand the mysteries surrounding UFOs/ETs. If we think that some beings will be able to develop such complicated systems, the system that I discuss here is not that much complicated.
